

Staff Photo By Philbrick

TO RESIDE IN MASSACHUSETTS—Pictured here with their children are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Polep of Auburn, who leave Sunday to make their home in Massachusetts. The children, left to right, are Linda, James and Rhonda.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Polep, residents of Auburn, Me., for the past nine years, left Sunday, June 21, for Springfield, Mass., where they will make their home.

Mr. Polep is vice president of the Polep Candy & Tobacco Co. and has been local manager of the wholesale branch in Auburn. While in Auburn he has taken an active part in work of several Jewish organizations. A member of Congregation Beth Abraham and its executive board, he is a past president of Beth Abraham Brotherhood and the Lewiston-Auburn Jewish Community Center, has served as vice president of Twin City Lodge of B'nai B'rith, vice president and campaign chairman of the United Jewish Appeal and as a member of the Lewiston-Auburn Hebrew School committee.

Mr. Polep is a 32d degree Mason, a member of the Shrine and the Lewiston Lodge of Elks.

At the recent annual meeting of the Jewish Community Center he has presented a plaque in recognition of the many services he has rendered. He also received a gift from Beth Abraham Brotherhood.

Mrs. Polep has been an active member of the Beth Abraham Sisterhood, the Center Women's League, Lewiston-Auburn Chapter of B'nai B'rith, Lewiston-Auburn Chapter of Hadassah and the Jewish Community Center Players.

Mr. Polep's mother, Mrs. Samuel Polep, was a recent guest in Auburn and attended many of the festivities given in honor of her son and his wife. The Auburn couple will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Polep at Springfield until they move into their own home. They have three children, Linda, Rhonda and James.

Mr. and Mrs. Polep have been honored at many farewell parties given by friends in the Twin Cities.