

Miss Betty Ann Simensky, 84

BETTY ANN SIMENSKY

Portland Press Herald (ME) - Monday, January 1, 1996

Betty Ann Simensky, 84, died Saturday at Southridge Living Center in Biddeford.

A lifelong resident of Biddeford, she was born here, a daughter of Myer and Stella Lazarowitz Simensky. She attended Biddeford schools, graduating from Biddeford High School in 1929. She also attended business school in Portland.

Miss Simensky worked in the office at the Saco Lowell Co. and later became the operator and sole owner of Myer A. Simensky's, a ladies clothing store her father started. She operated the store until fire struck the block in 1969. In the following years, she helped her brother, Jack, in his jewelry store, Jack & Larry's Jewelry Store in Biddeford.

Miss Simensky was a member of the Biddeford-Saco Chapter of Hadassah and Etz Chaim Synagogue in Biddeford.

Surviving are a sister, Tyna Simensky Merdek of Portland; two brothers, Jack Simensky of Biddeford and Larry Simensky of Boynton Beach, Fla., and formerly of Portland; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sunday, and burial was at Temple Beth El Memorial Park in Portland. Arrangements by Jones, Rich & Hutchins Funeral Home, Portland.
