Mr. Bernard Alexander Of Trenton, N. J., To Be Honored Guest At Supper Meeting Attended By Over 150 Delegates

President Abraham S. Levey Will Open Event Promptly At 6:15 P. M.; Important Matters To Be Considered

Approximately 150 Delegates, representing every organization in our community, will answer the Roll Call, when President Abraham S. Levey convenes the Annual Meeting at the

BERNARD ALEXANDER

Center on Thursday evening, December 14th. With a remarkable record of uniting the community, and already having achieved high standards in coordinating the fund raising of every group, the Federation is now preparing for the great tasks ahead. The delegates will be privileged to listen to one of America's outstanding lay leaders in community organization, when Mr. Bernard Alexander, of Trenton, N. J., will be the guest of honor at the supper meeting.

Mr. Alexander is a dynamic speaker with an excellent platform personality. He is President of the Trenton Jewish Federation; Vice-President of the Central Atlantic States Region of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, and is in great demand as a speaker in all parts of the country. He is widely recognized as an unusual Jewish leader, and Federation delegates are looking forward to his visit.

Because Mr. Alexander must leave at 8:45 P. M., Mr. Levey has announced that the supper service will begin promptly at 6:15 P. M., and it is expected that every delegate will be in his seat at this time.

Because of the generous help of the Federation's women's organizations, delegates will be served a delicious chicken dinner for only 75c.

Each of the Jewish Federation's previous Annual Meetings have been important milestones in the progress of our Jewish community, and this year's meeting will provide a real opportunity for delegates to find out how the Federation has been functioning and to take a hand in determining the future policy and program of the parent organization of all Jewish groups in our community.

Mr. Alexander's visit to our community has been arranged by Mr. Philip Bernstein, Director of Field Service, of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, in New York, with which our own Federation is affiliated as a constituent member.

THE DEAN'S LIST

I. Dean Silverman

Last Sunday in the gym the Mu Sigmas beat the Alpha Taus 22-16 in a game that had all the tense partisanship of a Portland-Deering game. . . . Even to organized cheering sections. . . . And a full house. . . . The Mu Sigs scored first, and although tied a couple times, managed to keep their slim lead to the end. . . . With the Phi Delta Mu, these teams will play each other every Sunday afternoon at four-thirty. . . . We got a big kick out of refereeing this game. . . . The losing team wanted to make the kick more realistic. . . . Although none of the participating teams know it yet, unless they read this, we are offering the Dean's List Trophy to the winner, the team winning it three times getting permanent possession. . . .

We got a fan letter from Mel Epstein in England—proving that people away from home will read anything in the "Bulletin"—who sent us an account of a football game described by a British sports writer. . . . One of the funniest things we've read in a long time. . . . Have a sample. . . . "The only thing that moves play towards the goal posts seems to be the instinct of self preservation of the man with the ball. . . . He runs as far as he can before he is maimed or killed by the other players. . . ." . . . And describing the water boy's appearance on the field. . . . "The buckets held towels and water for the players still living. . . ."

Seeing Mickey Schultz recently after his internship in Sweden reminded us of a little-known and long-forgotten incident that took place many years ago. . . . We were a senior in High School at the time. . . . Having just got out of bed with the grippe, we couldn't run in the inter-class meet. . . . The Junior class had no relay team entered, so we got together Mickey, Maxie Crasnick, Rube Karlin, and Buddy Silverman. . . . We showed them how to pass the baton, and watched them—win. . . . Of the others of that quartet, Maxie is now somewhere in the South Pacific; Rube is in Italy; and Buddy is home after 14 months in the Army, but still fighting. . . . This one a losing battle with his hair. . . .

Federation Announces Additional Names

Delegates May Submit
Names Of Further
Nominees Before Sunday

The Nominating Committee of the Jewish Federation regrets that in last week's issue of the "Bulletin" the names of four nominees were omitted. These are: Myer Cope, Mrs. Jacob Lamport, Mrs. Celia Lerman and Mr. Abraham Seigal.

These names are to be added to the list of 61 announced in last week's "Bulletin." From this group will be chosen 45 Directors; 15 to serve 3-year terms, 15 2-year terms, and 15 for 1-year term, depending on the total number of votes polled at the Annual Meeting.

Official notice is also herewith given that any delegate to the Federation Board may submit additional names, provided names are in the hands of the secretary no later than Sunday, December 10th.

Junior Hi-Lites

By Ralph Levi

Last Saturday night the Dramatic Club held its first meeting. It seems we have quite a bit of talent. We didn't have as big a turnout as we expected, but we can understand it as it was quite cold. (Cold feet.)

Allen Levine has been appointed chairman of the much discussed Chanukah Party to be held December 16.

The club extends its appreciation to Miss Suzanne Cinamon for taking so much interest in our organization. Thanks to Miss Charlotte Zimmerman for lending her valuable time to us a few weeks ago.

Please do not laugh—"Yours Truly" is coaching the Girls' Basketball Team until Mrs. Finn comes back. The Junior Hi Boys' Basketball Team feels that it is ready to accept all comers. Please report any challenges to "Yours Truly."

Because our teacher, Mr. Joseph LaReis, was busy entertaining Senator Brewster, there was no Arts and Crafts Tuesday night, but there will be a class next Tuesday as usual. Next week will appear the "PLEDGE" that members must take before entering the club.

The members wish their parents and friends a very happy Chanukah, and with those words I'll say Adieu.

Mr. Robert Fitterman Of National Council To Attend Federation Rally

Delegates attending the Federation's Annual Meeting on Thursday evening, December 14th, will have the opportunity of meeting for the first time with Mr. Robert Fitterman, Field Representative for the New England Region of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds. Although this will be Mr. Fitterman's first personal visit to our community, the Federation is indebted to him for many services rendered by his office.

Mr. Fitterman will present an informal report concerning the New England region, which should be very interesting and enlightening.

On Friday Mr. Fitterman will meet with leaders of the Federation for discussions concerning future development of the Federation.

WITH OUR BOYS IN THE SERVICE

by EDDIE 'אברהם' טשיק, SHAPIRO

Just because they cut me off last week like a non-paid electric light bill, I am going to continue just where they dood it. (In a way I'm tickled to pieces because the material is LOWZAY.)

LEFT OUT BIZ OF LAST WEEK . . .

CONGRATULATIONS: Lt. Irving Small with the new bars. Irving was home for a week and is now going to Camp Devens, Mass., which is the replacement center. I salute you, Shavetail.

LETTERS: Sonny Abrams from somewhere across writes: "Here is what I cannot understand, Eddie. Cigarettes here are as high as Seven Dollars and Seventy Cents a package, bread is Seventy Cents a loaf, and the other day I had myself a haircut, shave, shampoo and a facial for Sixty-six Cents. Can you make it out? I really cannot!! The Jerries are certainly trying to find our range and it's getting almost too close for comfort!" (Take care of yourself, kid. That tank of yours could do a lot of damage.) . . . Carl Lonstein writes: "If and when I get a picture of you standing beside a 9-point buck, I shall say, 'faker, faker!'" (There's a guy that don't think a heck of a lot about my hunting experiences. And I say that if you do say "faker, faker," you will be right.) "As for myself, I'll probably be leaving for Camp Livingston, La., by the end of the week."

Carl is now at Fort Bragg, N. C. "You know the Army." . . . Paul Lane, in a bi-monthly letter from Italy, writes: "The weather here in Italy is good but very cold. I am receiving the 'Bulletin' regularly and am certainly happy to read about Maxie Lerman and his football triumphs with Portland High School. I expect to see Hy Benjamin and Harry Lerman in the near future. Keep 'em coming."

In a letter to his folks, Howard Sapiro writes: "If you see Avrom-chick you can tell him for me that he is doing an excellent job in the 'Bulletin.' It's a pleasure to read his column." . . . We have it on reliable sources that Melvin Jacobson's pet dog, Tundra, is expecting an addition to the family. We hope it's twins.

Harold Levine writes: "As I do quite a bit of moving around on paper, I'd like to give you my new address. Sgt. Hyman Micohen comes over to see me all the time as we are not far apart at all." (New address in preceding section.) . . . Louie Black writes: "I'm still stationed at Camp Berkeley, Texas. I've completed my third basic training program since I entered the army over fourteen months ago. Time sure does fly very quickly. This camp has hundreds of battalions and it seems that I'm moving every week. I am now in A Co. of the 51st Bn. I expect to move some time this week. I feel like a gypsy at Camp Berkeley. CU soon. P. S.: I'm in the medics. Ich hob gevoren a doctor uf fee eltere yoren." (Louie has been around the town since this letter was written and looks swell.) . . . Saw where Lester Silverman has been promoted to temporary Captain. Congratulations. . . . Mel Epstein writes from England: "Funny thing! I took out this V-Mail and was about to write to someone, but I forgot who, so instead to you, little chum. (How do you like that? Do you see the way the boys feel about writing? To me especially.) Yep, I'm following up the invasion lads, policing up after them and getting a good kick at what's left after they sent everything loose home for souvenirs. Money over here still confuses and the payoff came when one of my boys, underweight and anemic, refused to shoot craps because he had heard a guy lost four pounds doing that." (Smart Fella!!) . . . Mel goes on saying, "The English astounded me with their knowledge of American politics and the election over here was a burning issue. The newspapers here riled up our Southern lads by referring to the Southern Democrats as 'Tories' and the Northern Democrats as 'Liberals' after the British party nomenclature." (Thanx for the letter.)

Candles In The Night

A Chanukah Message

By Rabbi Aaron Greenbaum

There is awesome mystery and grandeur in a candle in an otherwise dark room, particularly when we are accustomed to the brilliance of electric illumination in our homes. There is manifold versatility in the gentle flame. It speaks to us in a wordless tongue through the inaudible vibrations of our heart strings. In Jewish life, various types of candles are lit at various occasions. There is the Sabbath candle. Its message is one of holiness and purity; rest and sublimity are its tidings.

There is also the "Yahrzeit" candle: a lone candle in a corner of the house in memory of one whose light and love we miss. It flickers mournfully with yearning and reverence in its quiet flame. It is a memorial light.

Then, there is the Chanukah candle. This candle has varying messages. It speaks of modest sanctity, of valor, of memory and hope.

Religiously, Chanukah represents the triumph of the Jewish faith over the pagan Greek culture. The Jewish faith was faced with a formidable enemy who would forcefully impose upon them sterile idolatry with its corrupt living. The exhortative voice of the prophets, so effective in previous generations, was not sufficient now to stem the tide of paganism. Physical force was needed to buttress the burning zeal and devotion of the pious. The triumph of the Maccabees assured the continuity of the religion of spirit. It was a triumph of morality, goodness and purity of the Jewish faith over the sensuality, selfishness and vulgarity of heathenism.

Nationally, Chanukah focuses our attention to the unquestionable nationhood of the Jewish people. When we persist in celebrating a national victory for over 2,000 years, then we demonstrate to all the world and to the perplexed within our fold that we never cease to exist and function as a nation. Nor have we ever surrendered the hope of full reconstitution. In the words of Benjamin Disraeli: "The vineyards of Israel have ceased to exist, but the eternal law enjoins the children of Israel to celebrate the vintage. A race that persists in celebrating their vintage, although they have no fruits to gather, will regain their vineyard."

Universally, Chanukah is a symbol and landmark in the long struggle of mankind for freedom of conscience. Many wars for the protection of land, home and hearth antedated the epic of the Maccabees, but the latter was the first armed defense of the truth faith, and freedom of worship. The "Feast of Lights" manifested, too, that a mighty sword of the arrogant can be shattered against the rock of the unwielding human spirit and perseverance. The Chanukah light, which we shall kindle in our homes, beginning with Sunday evening, December 10 this year, will link the current Maccabees with their ancient predecessors in the struggle for freedom, justice and conscience.

Let us light the candles for positive, meaningful religious living; reconstitution of the land and nation of Israel and universal freedom.

"It is good for Jewish lads to include warriors of their own race in their gallery of heroes to be able to say, 'My people have produced its brave men equally with the

G. I. GIBLETS

The Chanukah season means festivities for all!! We in Portland must keep up the traditions. Therefore many parties are being planned for the boys in the area. The Harbor Defenses will have their party December 14, at Fort Williams. Of course, we bring the gals and refreshments!! The B'nai B'rith is sponsoring the party at the Center December 17.

Those sun-tanned complexions sure do become you!! We're referring to a few familiar faces who are once again with us. (Harry, Rosy, John—take notice!!)

Also the sick are going to be cheered by the USO's hospitality. Holiday parties are being planned in the Sick Bays. I bet those packages will please many a boy!

Flash!! MINIATURE HURRICANE CAUSES KLEINFELD'S "IVORY TOWER" TO BE INVADDED BY FAMISHED SOLDIERS!! The hurricane kept the gals home, but the refreshments got through to Peaks Island last Thursday night. By some "quirk" of Fate—the refreshments landed in Kleinfeld's tower. Led by the scent of the delicious food, many a soldier invaded Kleinfeld's solitude and were well rewarded!!

Where's your USO spirit??? The boys need games and cards!! How about seeing that our lounge does not lack these things??? (We mean all of you!)

Free Phone Call!! That will be one of the major attractions at the next Sunday night dance!! The girls at the Telephone Co. are sponsoring the call. (Wish we could offer this attraction each week!!)

Floss and Alfred take a bow!! Where else can servicemen find more warmth and genial hospitality than at 20 Lewis Street.

Next formal—December 24th—set that date aside!!

Until we meet again—

Junior Hadassah Finally "Spills The Beans" About Chanukah Party Dec. 13

DEAR MOLLIE:

It's all so breathtakingly wonderful, we can hardly even talk about it! We're way up in the clouds just thinking about it! And we do hate to be selfish and keep all this delightful information to ourselves. So we're bound to burst out sooner or later and cry, jubilantly, "Junior Hadassah is doing it again!" Gosh, there's so much to tell you about, we hardly know where to begin. But this is getting us nowhere. Well, we're having a party—all in the Chanukah spirit. It's going to be held December 13, 1944, on a WEDNESDAY evening, at 8:30, at the Jewish Community Center. The program is simply terrific, we hear. Besides songs by Sula Passman, dramatic recitations by Shirley Levine, dances by Sara Jean Jacobson, we're planning a mock fashion show in which the participants will be Kenneth Waks, Arnold Kuvent, Irving Zalzman, Irving Grunes, Burton Cook. The juke box is ours for the evening, and glory be to Ginsburg, we're having MEN! Games, dancing, entertainment, food! Yowie! we're drooling over the set-up already.

But time waits for no one, and your dues are an important factor in this party—it is exclusively for members who have paid at least half their dues—or for those who would like to pay half their dues. Somewhere you can dig up a $1.25 and make your friends do the same. So please, Mollie, come and bring the mob with you. We'll all have a glorious time, we know.

See you Wednesday.

Love,

Publicity Chairman.
