Federation Delegates Attend Inspiring Annual Assembly

Abraham S. Levey Presides At Meeting Featuring Board Member Election

Before almost 200 delegates and alternates, gathered at the Federation's Annual Assembly on Thursday evening, December 14th, President Abraham S. Levey set the keynote in a stirring message. He urged that the remarkable unity, which had already been achieved, be considered the foundation for the future growth of an even stronger and finer community.

JOE WIGON

Honored In Surprise Presentation

In a surprise presentation, Barnett I. Shur, Chairman of the Federation Executive Committee, presented a Golden Book Certificate honoring Joe Wigon, 1944 Campaign Chairman, for his dynamic leadership in the Campaign. This stirring ceremony followed immediately after Joe had pulled the first surprise of the evening himself. Acknowledging his deep appreciation for their invaluable assistance, he called upon Jacob H. Berman, George I. Lewis and Sidney Davidson, to whom he presented as his personal tribute Golden Book Certificates.

In a brilliant address, Bernard Alexander, of Trenton, N. J., stated that the hope for a vital and cohesive body of American Jewry rested upon the shoulders of Federations such as ours. He expressed the idea that the Federation's assembly of delegates representing every shade of Jewish opinion was pure democracy in action.

Mr. Alexander was introduced by Mrs. Israel Bernstein, Vice-President.

Mr. Jacob Sapiro, Chairman of the Finance Committee, presented a complete statement of the finan-

Center Women's Club To Hold Chanukah Meeting On Wednesday, December 20

The Center Women's Club will hold a Chanukah meeting and tea at 2:00 P. M., Wednesday, December 20. Mrs. E'Lora Pease Crane will give two one-half hour humorous dramatic sketches on Corliss Archer, that lovable adolescent, taken from the hit play, "Kiss and Tell," also of the current radio series. Mrs. Crane, who is well known in local dramatic circles, appeared in many Portland Players' productions and conducts a dramatic school at the Crane Little Theater in South Portland.

Mrs. Louis Gordon and Mrs. Max Cooper are co-chairmen of the tea.

Center Dancing School Invites Parents Sunday

The date is December 17 for the Center Dancing School's informal party. Remember, mothers and dads who have been so anxious to see their kiddies "strutting," this is your only opportunity until next term.

Join in with your children. It's really a party. Don't forget, each child should bring a 10 cent gift wrapped up pretty.

In charge of arrangements and decorations is the new chairman, Mrs. Manny Brook, who replaces Mrs. Irwin Herman, who resigned. All new and old members are urged to attend. Mrs. Julius Elowitch will preside for business.

Youth Center To Be Dedicated On Thursday, Dec. 28

Nathan A. Heller, President Of Boston Y. M. H. A., To Be Guest Speaker

The Center Youth will really come into its own on the night of December 28, according to Max Fischman, Senior Advisor to the group. On that night, the Youth Center dedication will take place, and the now beautifully furnished room, devoted completely to the activities of the younger people, will be officially open.

Mr. Fischman said that the most formidable list of dignitaries ever assembled on a Center speakers' platform would be present. Officials of the State and the City will be on hand and representatives of the Catholic and Protestant faiths will also add their congratulatory messages.

A crowd of over 300 people is expected for the occasion and for the present the parents of the boys and girls in the organization will be given priority for tickets to the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lown of Lewiston, whose gracious gift has enabled the furnishing of the Youth Center, are invited as guests of honor and Nathan A. Heller of Boston will be the keynote speaker. Mr. Heller, for twenty-five years, has been associated with youth movements on a national basis and besides many civic positions has held such outstanding offices as President of the Boston Y. M. H. A., member of the Executive Board of the Jewish Welfare Board and President of the Associated Y. M. and Y. W. H. A.'s of New England.

The banquet details are in the capable hands of the Center Women's Club. Mrs. Maurice Matson is chairman for the occasion.

THE DEAN'S LIST

Does your cigarette taste different lately? Well, it may—if you can find one; but the gym definitely does look differently. There is more activity in the gym these days than since before the war. Not only are the intramurals drawing capacity audiences every Sunday afternoon, but the Center is sponsoring two basketball teams—complete with brand new uniforms.

In order to give more players a chance to participate in the basketball games we have picked two teams of eight men each. However, the personnel of both teams is subject to change at any time. If a man on Team B shows that he deserves a chance to play on Team A, up he goes and down goes someone to make room for him; similarly, someone not now included on either team still has a chance to move up. To get action for both squads and still have the regular gym periods, a schedule has been drawn up that we feel will be best for all concerned. Team A will play every Tuesday night at 8:30; Team B will play at the same time every Thursday; all those not playing in the scheduled game will have their gym period at 7 o'clock. In other words, everyone will still play twice a week, either in the game or gym.

The Team A roster as of now reads: Sonny Reuben, Alvan Mersky, Irv Zalzman, Chucky Mack, Kenny Waks, Harry Offenber, Bunky Fink, and Billy Matson.

Team B lines up with Joe Lerman, Gil Abramson, Burt Cook, Arnold Kuvent, Jerry Lewis, Irv Grunes, Arnold Brynes, and Hank Gilbert. One of these is going to have to step to keep fast-improving Jackie Rubin out of uniform.

Team A opened its season Tuesday night with a 52-20 win over the Munjoy Redskins. The losers had two men from last year's championship Freshman team in its lineup as well as other experienced players, but they were no match for the Center five. After a slow first quarter that ended 4-0 Center, the game turned into a rout for the home team. A tight defense kept the visitors away from the basket, while Zalzman, Reuben, Mersky and Fink slipped through for some pretty shots. Kenny Waks' work off the boards kept the ball in the Center's hands for the best part of the game.

Next Tuesday night the A's meet the Dimouts, a fast colored outfit.

Last Sunday the Mu Sigmas showed that they are going to be the team to beat in the Fraternity League when they beat Phi Delta Mu 26-20. Phi Delt took an early lead, but couldn't hold it in the face of better team play.

If any of you people have nothing to do on a Tuesday or Thursday night or Sunday afternoon, come down to the Center and treat yourself to some real basketball.

Junior Hi-Lites

By Ralph Levi

Last week a terrific basketball game was held! The Junior Hi Boys played a pick-up team, "The Tigers." When the score was read it seemed that it was 29-27 in favor of the opposing team; however, a correction was made in the addition, and the score was tied 29-29. A truly exciting contest, evenly matched!

It has been decided that dramatics and a canteen will be held on alternate Saturday nights. Tonight, a Chanukah party is the event of the week. Next week, the canteen will be initiated.

Last week I promised to print the PLEDGE. Here it is: "We, as members of the Junior Hi-Club, in order to form a successful social club, hereby pledge to practice—coöperation, self-control, courtesy, obedience and honesty. If, in the judgment of the Junior Jury, I am found to have violated, in any way whatsoever, this pledge, I shall accept, without complaint, the penalty imposed upon me." The "Junior Jury" is a body of selected members who are appointed to judge the "crime" and impose the penalties on "misbehaving members." They will have general meetings once a month, and, if necessary, will have special sessions. We only hope this Jury will not have to pass too many "judgments."

Women Urged to Bring More Christmas Packages

Mrs. Herbert Stern is urging all members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Jacob Cousens Post, Jewish War Veterans, and the Center Women's Club, who have not as yet prepared Christmas boxes, to do so immediately, since these are urgently needed at the Marine Hospital and Naval Base Hospital.

Members are asked to leave boxes at the Center. Some suggestions for Christmas boxes are: miniature games, new playing cards, comic books, pocket editions of books, shoe polish, stationery, cigarettes, tooth paste and powder, shaving cream or lotion, hard candy, homemade cookies, pipe tobacco, gum, dates, figs, peanuts, miniature snapshot folders and other useful articles. Members are asked to wrap their packages attractively before leaving them at the Center.

Moses Byer To Address Zionist Breakfast Meeting This Sunday Morning

"A Business Man Looks Upon Palestine" is the title of Mr. Byer's address to the Portland Zionist District's Sunday Breakfast meeting at the Center this Sunday.

Mr. Byer is eminently qualified to speak on this subject. He is president and general manager of the Byer Mfg. Co., one of the oldest companies in Orono, Maine, which places him well into the executive group—and his visit to Palestine, where he saw the achievement and growth of the Jewish cities and colonies, gives him first hand information for his subject.

Mr. Byer is a "dyed-in-the-wool" old-time New Englander—having been born in Bangor, Maine, where he has spent the greatest part of his life.

Mr. Byer has been a leader in Maine Zionist Movements all his life and is now vice-president of the Maine Committee for the establishment of a Jewish Commonwealth in Palestine. He is also former president of the Bangor Jewish Community Center.

Mr. Israel Bernstein is chairman of this Sunday's Breakfast meeting, which will start promptly at 10:30 A. M. Plan now to attend what undoubtedly will prove to be one of the highlight meetings of the year. Don't come alone and be a hermit—Bring a friend!

Junior Hadassah Study Group To Meet

The next meeting of Junior Hadassah's new study group will be held next Thursday evening, December 21, at the home of Miriam Shelling, 551 Cumberland Ave. Louise Shur is in charge of this group which meets alternate Thursdays at the girls' respective homes. Each girl prepares a lesson each week. These meetings are open to all members and guests.

By Carol Smith

Last week at a combined meeting of the Junior and Senior groups of Young Judea, we gave our dress rehearsal in the Banquet Hall for both of the clubs. WITH OUR BOYS IN THE SERVICE

by EDDIE "אברהם טשיק", SHAPIRO

I imagine you have been noticing that my column is kind of shortened up weekly. You see, we are no different than any other newspaper in the country. "The New York Times," the "Portland Evening Express" and the "Center Bulletin" (quite a comparison) have to conserve on space. Personally I don't like it. There are weeks that Mr. Banjoeyes "Hack It" Godfrey has told the With Our Boys in the Service writers to write paltry because the "Bulletin" was very short of material. So what's the result—the column is hacked in half. But I do not blame him. W. P. B. says Conserve and we abide by their orders. I get a real kick out of it tho. When I receive my copy of the "Bulletin" Saturday mornings I always read my column to see just what was hacked. It's fun. Tuesday's I go bananas getting this dope out and Saturdays when I receive it I'm the one that's duped. (Don't change your method, Banjoeyes; if you do I may faint and you'll be minus a columnist, which will probably be good, good, good.)

HOME ON LEAVES AND FURLOUGHS: Philip Lourie and Henry Cutler.

NEW ADDRESSES: Simon Berenson, A/S, USNR Midshipmen's School, 411 West 116th Street, New York 27, New York. . . Lt. Robert Rosenberg, 51st Mobile Port, N. Y., Port of Embarkation, New York, New York. . . Pfc. Nathan Cope, 421 B Sqd., 504 Bmb. Gp., A. P. O. 17016, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif. . . Edward I. Gold, Yeo 3/c, 234 N. E. St., Miami 32, Florida. . . M/Sgt. Frank Wolfe, 443rd Base Unit, Ontario Army Air Field, Ontario, California.

LETTERS AND ALL: It seems as tho Sid Greenberg always gets the jump on all the boys in the service. I received a beautiful V-Mail Chanukah greeting from him in Italy. It wasn't the first time either. He's first on the New Year's, Passover and now Chanukah. (Thank you, Sid, and I wish you as well as the rest many.)

AROUND THE TOWN: Last Monday night the Center Men's Club were honored with the presence of the Masked Marvel, who is a real honest-to-goodness HYPNOTIST. His subject was none other than Henry Cutler, who is spending a furlough with his folks. It was really amazing. Henry succumbed to the M. M.'s wishes very quickly. While Henry was under the spell, he was told by the Marvel to get up and tell his rookies the disciplinary methods of the Army. (Under the trance he was promoted to Captain.) Henry's spiel to his men was a corker. At one particular point it was, "Men, it isn't my fault that there is a war. We're all in it and we're going to stay in it until this is over. I want respect from every one of you. And I want you to respect each and every one of your officers. They may be much younger than you, but don't forget the 'Sir.' In order to have a good type of soldier, we must have respect." For a moment I thought there actually was a tough Army Captain in the room. I found out from the Masked Marvel later that Henry made an excellent subject. He was receptive through every angle. (The Masked Marvel, you know, is one of our own local boys and if there is a possibility, I would like to have him work on some of my staff associates. Wouldn't that be lovely?)

The spectators at last Sunday's basketball game certainly complained of seeing things. They claim that they have now seen everything. Their knowledge is complete. The reason being AVROMCHICK REFEREED THE GAME. Who played? I really don't know. Of course the game was basketball. Some of the spectators say that I was part hockey, football and badminton ref. My services are available every Sunday from three to five-thirty in the P. M. and if I'M called upon, you guys are the biggest suckers in the world. If it was a gin rummy game to referee, you are talking my style.

All Invited To Zionist Chanukah Party On Sunday Evening

All are cordially invited to the Chanukah Celebration being presented by the Jewish National Fund and Portland Zionist Council Sunday evening, December 17th, under the chairmanship of David Rubinoff. Listen In! Palestine Speaks!

M.

G. I. GIBLETS

I'm going to let you all in on a little secret—I hear that the Holiday Formal, December 24th, is going to be the "Bestest one that am." Eleanor Edison and Bea Lerman, our Wednesday night Canteen faithfuls, are co-chairmen. A Free Phone Call for some lucky serviceman is just one of the many attractions.

Speaking of Phone Calls—we want to thank the gals from the Portland Dial Office for the one last Sunday night. A member of the better sex (I can just hear the boys hooting when they read the above statement), a WAC, won. Her brother was visiting her from Westover Field. So, they were both able to call Mom and Pop at New Orleans! !

The Navy Blue predominated at our birthday party! ! One soldier and five sailors celebrated their birthdays at the Sunday night dance. The soldier was a home-town boy, Ray Broisman. Mrs. Broisman wanted all the boys, who had a Birthday that week, to have a cake. I hear that cake was darned good, too! !

Good luck, Jack Varon. We hate to see you go. But, we are sure that some day you'll be back to visit us once again. We'll all miss your friendly face around the Center.

We not only have Junior Hostesses at our Lounge, but also servicemen as hosts. Two of the boys, Bert Kesoff and Morris Cohen, took over last week. Bert taught the hostesses on duty Tuesday nite how to make good (and I do mean good) coffee.

The Chanukah Party at Fort Williams is still the Talk of the Town! ! Floss Herman and her committee sure did a grand job.

Tie two strings on your fingers, girls—
Number One is to remind you—
Navy Band Sunday Night
Number Two—
Formal—December 24th! !

Katze, Mrs. David Cutler, Mrs. Meyer Levitan, Mrs. Irving Rothstein, Mrs. Max Cooper, Mrs. Harry Weinstein, Mrs. Nathan C. Seigal, Mrs. Lena Levine, Mrs. Israel Glovsky, Edith Cope and Mildred Cohen.

Serving as efficient waitresses were: Lois Jacobson, Muriel Astor, Rita Levine, Marion Serlick, Marcia Ginsburg, Sara Simonds, Thelma Cohen, Sarah Davidson and Ethel Levey.

A congratulatory message, complimenting our Federation on its achievements, was received from Milton Kahn, Regional President of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds.
