Center's Second Annual Picnic Is Sunday

Director's Message

You are now reading the final issue of the Center Bulletin for the 1949-1950 season.

We have learned that time does not stand still, for it seems only a short while ago that we announced our plans for the year. Now let us look back in retrospect. We have tried in this issue to reacquaint you with some of the programs of the past year. It was impossible to publish all groups; nor could we take pictures of every activity. We have merely highlighted some of the major events.

To accomplish all of last year's extensive program required the combined efforts of everyone. The advice and guidance of our past presidents helped us immeasurably to reach our goals. The Center President, Harold Potter, was ever ready and always on hand to assist in the formulation and culmination of our entire Center program.

The Center's executive committee has been ever alert to our changing program needs. Each committee chairman accepted and carried out his responsibilities graciously. All committees, regardless of their size, functioned ably to provide a well-rounded season of activities.

We have welcomed the suggestions and criticisms and participation of our Center membership towards the fulfillment of a diversified program.

With a maximum registration of 100, we are now looking forward to our Day Camp season. We will need the help of many volunteers during the Camp season. Won't you volunteer your services for at least one day during our six week period? Phone your name into our office and tell us on what day you would like to serve.

Center Youth's Banquet June 7 Honors Parents

Center Youth's annual banquet and installation will be held Wednesday night, June 7. The theme of this year's affair is built around the parents of Center Youth.

The price for the dinner is only 75c. The meal, a kosher one prepared by members of the Center Women's Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Laben, will be served in the Banquet Hall. The women will also be the waitresses. William Katz will give the invocation.

Guest speakers will be Frances Silver and Mrs. Joseph Lyons. They will speak on "What Center Youth Means To Me" from the teen-ager's and parent's points of view.

Officers to be installed are: Julie-ene Lyons and Myron Barnstone, co-presidents; Joanne Silverman, vice president in charge of program; Frances Silver, treasurer;

Mal Loew, recording secretary; and Richard Gordon, corresponding secretary. The officers will be installed by Harold J. Potter.

Other features will be the reading of the last will and testament and the announcement of Center Youth superlatives. A dance will follow the meeting's closing.

Dorothy Ann Bernstein is chairman in charge. Norman Finberg is reservations chairman. His number is 2-3810.

Eleanor Kaplan and Sandra Mersky will sell tickets to the banquet at Deering High School, while Nancy Mack and Muriel Tabachnick will cover Portland High.

The teen-agers are making every effort to put on a superior affair for their parents. Parents should not miss this opportunity to make it a successful affair with their presence.

Frances Davis Is New Year's Bulletin Head

At the Wednesday's Center Board meeting President Harold Potter appointed Mrs. Maurice (Frances) Davis as chairman of the New Year's Bulletin. This project is one of the most important undertakings of the Center's activities. In making the appointment Harold remarked "that the New Year's Bulletin is one of our chief sources of revenue and we should strive to maintain the same high standard set by our previous New Year's Bulletins.

The Center president further stated, "the enthusiastic response which followed my announcement speaks well for the reputation that Frances merits in Center endeavors. She is not new to Center needs and Center projects. As one of its early

The day you've been waiting for is this Sunday, June 4. It's the date of the second annual Center picnic at the Center's North Windham Day Camp on Sebago Lake.

There's a big committee working under Chairman Doc Henry Pollard to make the affair at least as good as last year's—and you remember what a gala affair that was!

How To Reach Camp

There are committees on arrangements, committees on refreshments, waterfront committee, prize committee, reservations committee, sports committee and even a committee on parking.

Everybody will have something to do — especially eat.

Remember what happened last year?

Harold Potter Is Re-elected

Harold Potter was re-elected president of the Jewish Community Center Wednesday, May 31, at a meeting at which six carnations were presented.

Other officers re-elected were: Morris Cox, secretary; Maurice "Bud" Cohen, Julius Greenstein, Mrs. Clarice Shur, Dr. Henry Pollard, Dave Astor, and Abraham Seigal, vice presidents.

Lester Willis was elected treasurer to succeed Sam Cohen, who will be chairman of the finance board.

The carnations were presented to Jerry Waxman, Arnold Potter, Sidney Lerman, Mrs. B. James Cohen, and Morris Cox for their efforts in making Center Workshop's original

Thirty To All

Thirty to all means the end of the day's work in newspaper jargon. It means the end of another season to the editors of the Center Bulletin.

The editors take this opportunity to say thanks to everyone who contributed — news, photographs or effort — to produce the Center publication this season, and to the Center executive and office staffs for their generous aid.

In place of our regular Scout meeting Monday night, we celebrated our fourth birthday by having a bang-up party to which we invited boys as special guests. We played games, danced, sang and had delicious refreshments. Novel decorations added to the festivity of the occasion. Flowers and a cake decorated with "Happy Birthday" were the centerpiece of the table. Everyone had a wonderful time!

In appreciation of all Mrs. Cohen and Mrs. Modes have done to make this year a very happy one for us in Scouting, we presented them with a gift.

In accepting the appointment Frances stated "that it is a pleasure and an honor to be selected as chairman of the New Year's Bulletin. I shall call upon many of last year's leaders to assist me in my task and I know I can rely upon the cooperation of all of you." Mrs. Davis further stated that she and her committee will start functioning in the very near future.

Best wishes and good luck to you, Frances!

Hy Wolotsky Is Speaker At Young Adult Conclave

Hy Wolotsky, Director of Activities at the Center, will be the principal speaker at the Conference of New England Young Adult Councils at Birchtoft, Jaffrey, New Hampshire on June 17 and 18. The theme of the conference will be "What Makes Young Adult Groups Click?"

A series of panel discussions will be held on Hy's address and will cover such sections of his speech as "What Are the Characteristics of the Young Adult?", "What Part Does Effective Planning Play In Successful Programming?", and "What Activities Interest Young Adults?"

The conclave will start Saturday night with a dinner and a dance social. Hy will make his address after breakfast Sunday morning. It will be followed by the panel discussions. Lunch and a recreation period will conclude the conference activities.

Billy Branz, program chairman of the 341 Club, will attend the conference as the Portland representative.

The Brockton, Mass. Young Adult Council will be the host committee for the conclave and promises a "bang-up" social and entertainment on Saturday night, as well as a generally good time.

Center ★ Youth

By N. MARK COOPER

Drag those dear parents down to the Parents' Night combined with the annual Center Youth Banquet and Dance which will climax a year of that organization's most successful activities. Dorothy Ann Bernstein is general chairman, aided by Barbara and Esther Sohn, chairmen of refreshments, Faye Levin-sky, program chairman, Jo Silverman, decorations, and Martin Burke, master of ceremonies.

The Banquet part will begin at 6:30, Wednesday evening, June 7, when we shall all enjoy a delicious meat supper. After the smoke, dishes, and speeches are cleared, there will be entertainment by Mrs. Joseph Lyons and Frances Silver, speakers; Mark Cooper, prophecies; Last Will and Testament by Judy Venner; and music by Hy Wolotsky and his favorite juke box.

Don't forget, parents, we want to see you; and the price of the whole wonderful evening will be 75c. You may reserve places for the banquet and dance (what a shindig it's going to be!) by calling Norman Finberg at 2-3810.

This is the last Center Youth column your columnist will write. Goodbye, everybody. Miss my wonderful wit? (Ed. Note: Only half.)

With this final issue of the Bulletin we would like to take the year in review, say a word of the present, and gaze in the crystal ball for the future.

The Volleyball program started out slowly, and finally reached its peak with the New England Volleyball Tournament which Portland hosted. The Lynn team which won the Tournament was given a stiff fight by the locals before going down to defeat. The Portland second team left sooner.

Basketball enjoyed its biggest year since pre-war days. The Varsity was a member of the revived City League, and split with old rivals, Portland Boys Club and the YMCA, in battles reminiscent of days gone by. New names Ray Bicknell, Sam Kaklegian, Vic Maria, and Billy Edes joined old standbys Sonny Reuben, Bunky Fink, Al Offenber, Hank Gilbert. The boys won 16 of the 25 games played during the year. Only one Senior played with the Intermediate and B's this year as the "old men" were playing for the High Schools. The A's reunited for two games at the end of the year which they naturally won. Playing their last for the A's were Maurice Weisman, Phil Nectow, Dave Molko, and Jerry Sutton.

This was also a banner year for local boys competing in High School athletics. Dave Molko and Jerry Carp were on the Deering Varsity football team, Harold Loew quarterbacked the Purple JV's, and Dave Lewis played for the Deering Frosh. Dave Redmond was the only representative on the Portland team. In basketball Molko gained a starting berth while Phil Nectow also played. Loew and Lewis again represented the Deering JV's and Frosh. Redmond and Weisman played on the Portland High State Championship team. In swimming, Paul Royte captained the Deering team, while Mel Lerman was a member of the Portland team that won State, New England, and National honors. Harvey Levine was a consistent point winner on the Portland cross-country, indoor and outdoor track teams. Dave Redmond is way out front in strikeouts in the Telegram League while pitching for Portland. Dave Lewis is a member of the Deering Freshman team. The Center's influence was even felt in the Grammar Schools where Alan and Joe Palais were on Jack Junior's Championship basketball squad, Mike Ross on the runner-up Lincoln Jr. team, and Sid Doughty on the Butler outfit. Doughty also played on Butler's Championship volleyball team as well as Championship baseball team. Sid won the Butler foul shooting title.

The Center softball teams went through the practice round undefeated, only to stumble when the

The Portland Hebrew School wishes to announce that two new awards have been added to those which will be awarded to outstanding students on the night of the Bas Mitzvah Celebration, Monday, June 12.

These awards, which will be made annually, have been donated by Mrs. Pauline Dorfman. The first, in memory of Rebecca and Louis Helfont, will be awarded to either the Bas Mitzvah girl, or girl in the highest class, who is continuing, and plans to continue her Hebrew education. The second, in memory of Samuel Dorfman, will be awarded to the child who has shown the best progress during the year.

Wilma Webber's Bas Mitzvah ad-regular season started. The JV's lost their game, 11-9, while the first had the dubious distinction of being the only Center team ever to lose a game by forfeit. Their future still looks bright, however, as the boys at Maine will be home very shortly.

There is no reason to fear that the Center won't be heard from again next season with boys like Lewis, Loew, Redmond, Jerry Fineberg, Bobby Meserve, Lenny Nelson, Carp, Ross, and the cousins Palais still around.

And so until next Fall, goodbye and good luck to all our loyal readers.

dress will be on "The Jewish Holidays" instead of "Prayer."

The following twelve boys, who were Bar Mitzvah since September, and who were all prepared by Mr. Jack Weinstein, will be presented with books by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the School:

David Ber, Bernard Cope, David Fenton, Leonard Fink, Sidney Geller, Stuart Goldberg, Marvin Goldblatt, Edward Goldman, David Hoffman, Benjamin Nemon, Bernard Simon, and David Weisberg.

The following books were chosen: A History of the Jews by Grayzel; A History of the Jewish People by Marx & Margolis; Pathways Through the Bible by Cohen; Theodore Herzl—A Biography by Bein.

Registration for the 1950-51 school year will begin on June 1, and continue through June 15. All who are interested are urged to call 3-0693 immediately.

Cub Pack Holds Picnic June 11

Cub Pack 6, the Center's younger Scouts, will hold a picnic on Peaks Island as its final meeting for this season.

Details as to where to assemble and what gear to bring along will be announced in a letter which will be sent to all Cubs next week.

In the event of rain, the meeting will be held at the Center. In the event it rains on June 4, however, and the Center Picnic is postponed to June 11, a new date will be set for the Cub Pack meeting.

In charge of the picnic arrangements are Ben Mestetsky, Cubmaster, and the Den Mothers, Mrs. Earl Brand and Mrs. Gerald A. Slosberg.

Hadassah Lists Committees; H-Day Is Scheduled Monday

The final meeting of the year for Portland Chapter of Hadassah was held recently at the Center. Harold Nelson outdid himself as installing officer and speaker. We may add (smugly) that we sincerely agree with everything he said about this wonderful organization.

Officers installed are: President, Mrs. Morris Cox; First Vice President, Mrs. Ephraim Bennett; Second Vice President, Mrs. Ben Yormack; Third Vice President, Mrs. Sidney Carnam; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Myer Weisman; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. A. H. Ginsburg; Treasurer, Mrs. Irving Rothstein; and Financial Secretary, Mrs. Maurice Levine.

Mrs. Leo Cohen and Mrs. Edward Jaffee were presented the Golden Book Certificates for the year, and Mrs. Ephraim Bennett the special carnation award for the outstanding chairman of the year. Mrs. Ralph Ross made the presentations.

The Executive Board includes: Program, Mrs. Ephraim Bennett; Membership, Mrs. Ben Yormack and Mrs. Herbert Sterns; Senior and Junior Relations, Mrs. Sidney Carnum; H.M. O., Mrs. Herman Hirsh; Youth Aliyah, Mrs. Maurice Gleckman; Child Welfare, Mrs. Joseph Taylor; Jewish National Fund, Mrs. David Cutler and Mrs. Herman Davidson; Palestine Supplies, Mrs. Max Cope; Education, Mrs. Maurice Packet; Publicity, Mrs. Simon J. Levine; Radio, Mrs. Stacy Baum; American Affairs, Mrs. David Rosengard; Tourist, Mrs. Leo Cohen; Bulletin (Hadassah Bulletin), Mrs. Leo Cohen, Mrs. Melvin Jacobson; Business and Professional, Mrs. Daniel Singer.

Thrift Shop, Mrs. Ben Brilliant and Mrs. Samuel Goldfarb; Trees, Mrs. Joseph R. Schatz; Baby trees and cards, Mrs. Harry Geller; Happy Day Fund, Mrs. Sam Shulman; Choral Group, Mrs. Sidney Levine; Special Affairs, Mrs. Edward Jaffe; Fund Raising and Co-ordination, Mrs. Sam Kates; Transportation, Mrs. Russell Bornstein; Hospitality, Mrs. Max Millstein; Chapter Correspondence, Mrs. William Schultz; Life Membership, Mrs. Arnold Goodman; Re-enrollment, Mrs. Max Mersky; Telephone, Mrs. Herman Gershenson; Advisors, Mrs. Abe Simonds, Mrs. Ben Troen and Mrs. Ralph Ross.

Before an organization can close for the season it is necessary to reduce the number of unpaid bills, so Hadassah is having H-DAY this coming Monday. All members who owe dues will please have it ready so when our committee calls on you, we can mark you paid in full for the year. Members who will be out on Monday are Mrs. Arnold Goodman, Mrs. Joseph R. Schatz, Mrs. Max Mersky, Mrs. Max Cope, Mrs. Irving Rothstein, Mrs. Joseph Taylor, Mrs. Herman Gershenson, Mrs.

Sidney Levine, Mrs. Leo Cohen, and Mrs. Simon Levine. Please co-operate.

At last — Portland Chapter of Hadassah and Council of Jewish Women have THE THRIFT SHOP and are planning to open it on or around June 15.

Chairman for Council is Mrs. Max Fleischer, and for Hadassah, Mrs. Ben Brilliant and Mrs. Sam Goldfarb. Their committees will be announced shortly. Folks, this is a big step in the right direction. When two such dynamic organizations are working together only the best can result — but we need your help. We ask you to please save your wrapping paper and string, your hangers, your discarded furniture, clothes, books, and what ever else you can give us. Watch the newspapers. Answer your phone when it rings, it will perhaps be one of the hard working committee calling to see what you have to give us. Save everything you think we can use, and for more information call our chairman, our presidents, our executive board. This is a business venture—the first of its kind ever attempted by us, and if we are to succeed, we must have your help. There is a great need for volunteers who can give an hour or two for this very interesting work—(you will get an education there, we promise you), so please call us if you think you can co-operate.

We have rented a place on Federal Street. We are planning to have a pick up day, June 11. Be sure to be ready for us. We are looking for a paid worker for five days a week, short hours, with plenty of relief. If you are interested or know somebody who is, please contact Mrs. Morris Cox, Tel. 2-4124.

Since Hy Wolotsky, our Activities Director, has joined our professional staff, we have been able to broaden the base of the young-adult and teen-age programs. Hy has many new plans and ideas for these members for the coming season.

At this time I would like to especially extend my heartiest thanks to Earl Aronson, our editor, who has been most faithful in editing and compiling every issue of the BULLETIN for the past two years. Our deepest appreciation is also extended to the other members of the staff who contributed their share in making our BULLETIN an attractive one.

Until next fall when we start with our enlarged New Year's Bulletin, I say, many thanks and a very pleasant summer . . .

We look forward to seeing and serving you at the Center in the fall.

musical revue, "Front and Center," a great success. Mrs. Lerman accepted for Sidney, who could not be present.

Earl Aronson was given a carnation for his editorship of the Center Bulletin.

Ethel Sacknoff, president of Workshop, reported on the theatrical group's final production of the season. She praised the efforts of the 95 members who participated.

The board decided to hold its June meeting on the 14th at a place to be announced.

In taking office for his second term, President Potter said:

"Our public relations have been extremely good because of the men and women surrounding the president.

"I take off my hat to Victor Taylor. He has taken a big burden from the president's shoulders."

He also spoke highly of the work of Hy Wolotsky, activities director and to the rest of the Center staff "who have been responsible for a good deal of the improvements you have wanted for so long."

"The vice presidents have assumed a great deal of responsibility and have done a fine job."

"I am honored that you have seen fit to re-elect me to this high office."

Dave Astor proposed that the Center provide a more fitting and better placed memorial to the city's Jewish war veterans. A committee will confer with representatives of the JWV Post.

President Potter greeted new members of the board and associate members. Some of the new associated board members are Maurice Davis, James B. Ross, Mrs. Louis (Selma) Bernstein, Charles (atty.) Cohen, Mrs. Shepard Cutler, and Mrs. Louis Drogin.

Harold Nelson reported that there are 127 members of the Godfrey Memorial fund for the Day Camp. He said he hoped to raise it to 150.

Dave Astor reported on the Day Camp and plans for this year's activities. Frieda Schilling reported on Center Youth, saying that Youth's newspaper had received fine praise throughout New England Centers.

Bud Cohen reported on membership. He said Irving Small will be membership chairman, who will be assisted by a volunteer group.

Zeke Rich reported on "Operations Cleanup" and expressed a desire that another cleanup day be designated.

Other reports were by Dr. Henry Pollard, on the Center Picnic; and Barney Shur on the Community Chest.

IN TUNE

BEN "Deems Taylor" ZOLOV

I shed the tears of a mouse when I learned that this issue of the Center Bulletin would be the last one until the fall season. One of the greatest thrills of the week was beating the Monday night dead-line.

The members of the Center Concert Orchestra will be scattered far and wide for the summer. Many of the younger set will continue with their musical efforts at special camps. We expect to lose a few of our talented musicians, who will be enroute to college careers next fall. After pleading with some bashful players the past few months, I hope that the depleted ranks will be adequately filled when the Baton is raised at our opening rehearsal in October.

Clinton Graffam, our conductor, will deserve a well earned rest. I can picture him during the hot summer months, relaxing on his front porch in Peaks Island, facing the Atlantic brine, with bare feet swinging in unison over the white capped waves — keeping tune with the salty notes.

So, I close wishing my faithful readers a healthy and happy summer, and hope —

"That the pleasant months from June,

Will keep us all afresh "In Tune."

Annual Picnic. Can hardly wait for the Pie Eating Contest, and the egg throwing games. (How many of you remember the scrambled egg adornment one certain person received last year?) Pack plenty of lunch folksies—dig into your deep freeze Dorothy Sandler for those delectable blintzes, and haul out those midget salomies Newell Potter, and bring along your delicious apple strudel Gertrude Gordon, and tote along your famous jelly roll Frances Davis, and how about your mouth-watering cheese pie Francis Elo-witch?

Wasn't it grand to see the teachers recognized last Thursday evening at one of the most outstanding affairs held in our Center . . . the testimonial dinner honoring Clara Soule for 48 years of teaching and serving her fellowman beyond her regular call of duty. Our own Peggy Bernstein, as usual, did herself proud as toastmistress of the evening. Many of Miss Soule's former pupils, who are now among all walks of life, teachers, ministers, lawyers, etc., etc., came to pay this noble lady homage . . . among them Prof. Jimmie Abramson, and Gert Troen, who spoke from the heart, as she generally does when she paid tribute to Miss Soule's work in connection with the foreign born. The marvel that is America was amply demonstrated by the many people of different nationalities who all spoke so sincerely and gratefully of their association with Miss Soule. (Throughout the evening, there was hardly a dry eye anywhere.)

We of the Center are very lucky . . . there is one fellow we know who works unobtrusively and unpretentiously. Everyone loves him and he gets things done in his own quiet and unassuming way. Young and old alike admire and look up to him . . . we salute you, Vic Taylor. Have a pleasant summer everyone, keep well, be happy, and get rested.
