Campaign Workers To Meet With Federation Board

Rally To Bring Together Over 200 On Thursday, April 26th

Joining forces with the Federation Board of Directors, George I. Lewis, Campaign Chairman, has issued a call to every Campaign worker to attend a joint meeting and Report Rally on Thursday evening, April 26th, at the Center. President Abraham S. Levey has called the meeting so that each and every worker may be present to hear the complete report of the Campaign to date, and to mobilize every effort to reach the Campaign Goal of $120,965.00.

It is expected that over 200 workers will attend, thus setting another record for the greatest number of Jewish people in our community to unite in a common cause.

If you haven't bought your tickets for the Pierre Van Paassen lecture you'd better hurry! They're almost all gone! You won't want to miss his vivid descriptions of life in the war-torn countries. His predictions of things to come, which are happening before our very eyes. His stories of the valorous Palestinian Army. Remember, there are very few tickets left. Call Harold Potter—Westbrook 542.

Jacob H. Berman To Preside At Federation Dinner

Event On Sunday, May 6, To Climax Greatest Campaign In History

JACOB H. BERMAN

Accepting the invitation of General Chairman George I. Lewis, to serve as Toastmaster, Mr. Jacob H. Berman will preside at the most notable event on Portland Jewry's calendar, the Jewish Federation Community Dinner Sunday evening, May 6th. Mr. Berman merits this high honor because of his long interest in worthwhile Jewish causes in our community.

The Executive Committee of the 1945 Campaign has announced that contributors of $100 or more (exclusive of the woman's gift) will be guests at the dinner.

According to every indication a new record for Women Donors will be set this year, at $36.00 each.

Invitations to the Community Dinner will be mailed on Monday, and it is hoped that those who wish to attend will reply immediately so that the guest list may be completed by Friday, April 27th. Our guest speaker will be announced in next week's "Bulletin."

Mrs. Anna Blumenthal and Majors Accept Unit Quota of $15,214

Two hundred and eighty-four Donors at $36.00 each, and a grand total of $15,214.00, was the high goal accepted by Mrs. Anna Blumenthal, Vice-Chairman of the Women's Division, at the Rally Wednesday evening, April 18th.

Stressing the need for every woman pledging herself to be a donor, Mrs. Israel Bernstein, who presided, said: "Every woman who understands will, and should, make every sacrifice to add her name to the Honor Roll of Women Donors. It means only 10c a day, and when we think what these pennies will do to save lives, and to build our community at home, we cannot say no."

Presidents of each of the organizations which are beneficiaries of the Federation agreed that the success of this year's tremendous campaign depends in a great measure upon the Women's Division going "over the top."

Women contributors will be honored again this year by having their names inscribed on the Women's Donor Honor Roll; tribute will be paid to these women at a special event in their honor.

The following are the Majors and their quotas, who are participating in the Women's Division:

Council Cancels Rummage

Sale In Favor Of

National Clothing Collection

Mrs. Casper Sutton, president of the Portland Section, Council of Jewish Women, announces that Council will dispense with the regular Spring rummage sale in order to contribute every bit of clothing collected to the National Overseas Clothing Collection. Mrs. Philip Rudek, thrift sale chairman, will be in charge of this project for Council. Articles of clothing and shoes are urgently needed for overseas distribution—outer clothing, underwear, boys' and girls' clothing, men's and women's clothing, baby clothing, everything wearable! So give all that you do not use.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Joseph Silverman in furnishing a truck for collection, boy scouts Richard Cutler and Jerry Sutton will collect your bundles Sunday morning, April 22. They will have many stops to make, so please have your things ready. Call Mrs. Philip Rudek (4-3645) or Mrs. Casper Sutton (3-2618) before that date if you have not already been contacted about having your things picked up. Won't you see NOW what you can spare that they can wear?

LETTERS AND ALL: We have received the Nip Rubberized Pants and Gloves that Louie Lane sent us from somewhere in the Pacific. Louie wrote us that they come from a 6 ft. 3 in. Jap Imperial Marine. They are brand new, cut from the Nippo's belt. Packed in neat packages. I don't think the Beach son had a chance to wear them (too bad). . . . It must have been some reunion when Howard and Sumner Sapiro got together on one of the islands in the Pacific recently. Howard's boat docked at this island, then it was Sumner's boat that docked right next to it. Happy get-together, I know.

NOW you asked for it. (That is, you didn't ask for it, but you're going to get it.) Old—Old Stuff.

Here it goes, gang, FROM 1942 ON: Sept., 1942, a Jewish Service Men's Honor Roll was planned. . . . The "Bulletin" staff had a gang of 15. (Today it's about 4.) We had 8 young ladies on it. (Today one.) . . . Sam Shatz was your Servicemen's Reporter. (Now see what ya gut!) . . . Blitz Silverman and Don Herman were the co-writers of the Sports Life Column. . . . Edward J. Berman was elected President of the J. C. C. Louis Bernstein made Hon. Pres. for life. Blitz was picking 'em wrong just the same as now. . . . October, 1942: Real program arranged for the 4th Anniversary of the Center. . . . Three buck privates and one shavetail headed for our servicemen's column. . . . Lt. Sampson Grunes, Pvt. David L. Diamon, Pvt. Saul Ginsburg and Pvt. Morris Blumenthal. . . . Rev. G. Ernest Lynch was keystone speaker at Center's 4th Anniversary Banquet. . . . Servicemen's column had all addresses. (Something which is about due now.) . . . Imagine having handball tournaments. . . . Pvt. Harold Romanow and Pvt. Stewart Shulman were photoed. . . . Sam Klamman, Bob Cohen, Nathan Stairman and Bernie Chapman ditto. . . . November, 1942: Jewish Welfare Board honored Maury Cox. . . . Sam Shatz, your reporter, was still around with his weeklies. . . . "Park Your Child" rates were reduced. . . . Myer Marcus was about to enter Off. Cand. School (Captain Marcus today!). . . . Barney Shur passed out cigars in honor of the newcomer, "Red Head" George Michael.

AROUND THE TOWN: At the Center Men's Club supper last week Commander Wells of the USNR gave the boys a swell talk on the construction work of the CB's on the Samoa Islands. Com. Wells' outfit was the second contingent to leave the U. S. in the early days of the war. During his talk he showed some slides and gave the history of each one. Before showing a certain slide he announced casually, "In my whole outfit there was only one Portland boy." Just imagine the surprise when our own Lester Sapiro was shown. The Commander then said, "I wouldn't know what to do without our legal advisor." It was really thrilling to those who attended. . . . Softball has started and quite a few of the boys turned out for some fun. Your correspondent umpired a few innings and got ousted for a better umpire. Then he decided to play right field. The field wasn't played too bad because nothing came to him. Bating was I think 000. One flyer's choice (big thing!), one fly out and one ground out. (Ed. note: Don't think 000! It definitely is ZERO in my book.)

Does A Lasting Peace Concern YOU?

There is a national movement all over the country to set aside this week as Dumbarton Oaks Week. It is important for everyone to acquaint himself with the Dumbarton Oaks proposals which we hope will be the groundwork for a lasting peace. To this end the churches and synagogues all over the country are cooperating and having prayers for the success of the San Francisco Conference.

Business Girls' Supper-Meeting Wednesday, April 25

At a Board Meeting of the J. C. C. Business Girls' Club, held at the home of Beatrice L. Lane, president, plans were made for a Supper and Meeting Wednesday, April 25th, 6:30 P. M.

Mrs. Louis Gordon is making the supper and with her reputation for preparing such excellent food, you gals can be assured of a delicious supper! Beatrice Lerman is chairman of arrangements. Emma Broisman is in charge of the program—the price of this affair is only fifty cents! Reservations will close Sunday, April 22nd—if you haven't already made yours, contact Sadye Slosberg, 3-2447.

The Business Girls were certainly proud of the gals that made the "Gay Nineties Revue" such a hit. Ruthie Greenberg certainly discovered oodles of talent, and she deserves so much credit for her wonderful work in directing the show as well as providing the musical background. Because of the many requests for the girls to present it again, the "Gay Nineties Revue" will be presented on Mothers' Day, the 13th of May. This annual Mothers' Day Tea and Program is open to only Business Girls and their mothers. Further plans will be announced at a later date.

Another must on your B. G. Social Calendar is the Formal, Sunday, April 29th—this promises to be another super affair with Ethel Comeras as chairman.

Girls, we'll be looking for you on April 25th at 6:30 P. M.!

Shaarey Tphiloh Sisterhood Plan Membership Luncheon

"We, of the Jewish faith, have lost a good friend—a real friend, and a true friend with the untimely passing of our late beloved President, Franklin D. Roosevelt. All nations and peoples will feel his loss, but none more than we. . . . We knew he was on our side, we felt his strength, and he gave us courage. He died so that we might live—a freer people!"

With these words Mrs. Louis R. Benson, President, opened the meeting of the Shaarey Tphiloh Sisterhood, Monday, April 16th, in the vestry. She then went on to describe Roosevelt, the statesman; Roosevelt, the humanitarian; Roosevelt, the man.

Mrs. Edith Citrin and Mrs. Eleanor Citrin were admitted as new members, and plans for a paid-up membership luncheon, May 21st, were discussed. Mrs. Abraham Goldberg and Mrs. Mildred Lamper were appointed co-chairmen.

prayer: "BROTHER, WON'T YOU HELP?" The need and opportunity for help are unprecedented. Our response must be speedy and most generous.

Our task is, in fact, a huge, human, salvage effort. We must give hope—give life—fill in the gaps between the skin and bone—infuse a new trust in G-d—a new faith in human beings. We will give ourselves over to this task with a heavy, sorrowful heart. But let us do it with unstinting devotion and unsurpassed generosity. "BROTHER, WON'T YOU HELP?"

Recognition Of Service When Service Was Needed

Sgt. Sidney Levine of Portland, son of Mrs. Mark Levine of 151 Congress Street, Portland, Maine, has just returned from thirty-nine (39) months of service, an unusually long record and one of the very first boys who left Portland to enter the service, who has been actively engaged in the Southwest Pacific for such a long period of time.

Sgt. Levine was attached to a Division which was formed overseas, and was one of the first to land on Guadalcanal, which was the first island invaded by our troops against the Japanese. He saw action on Bougainville, on Leyte in the Philippine Islands, and also at New Hebrides. He was the first Portland Jewish boy to go overseas and was attached to the 182nd Infantry, Co. "L". He is known as one of the few attached to the "AMERICAN" Division.

He has returned to this country and is slated to go to a rest camp at Lake Placid, New York. He is one of our unsung heroes, and as Chairman of the War Records Board for Portland, we welcome him back.

William E. Perlín,
Chairman, War Records Board.

Please, mothers of Dancing School children, bring the money and pick up the material for the costumes Sunday. If the costume is being taken care of by the costumer, just send the money with your child. I'm happy to say the material will be $3.50, a bit less than I quoted. The Dean's List

With Alan Larkin Pinch-hitting

I am writing this column this week for all you poor fellows who have had to read this "Feature" week after week. I am going to serve the readers of this organ by breaking up the monotonous and absolutely senseless stuff that I, Dean Silverman has been able to slide by Norman Godfrey.

I think it would serve Dean's reader (singular intended) well to know something about the person who has been annoying them with his dull wit and petty tripe and so regularly. He is a very modest person with a personality devoid of all bravado or superiority usually found in normal people. It is not true that he is a Zola, Milton, Lincoln, Kaye, Truman, Larkin or Churchill. He is not the swiftest runner, the best basketball player, the foremost journalist, the most articulate speaker, the best referee, the sharpest wit, or a gift to the womanhood of America.

Although his draft board has rejected him because of poor eye sight, he has never been known to pass the case king. He is very precise in his attire and always wears a careful contrasting shade of running pants with his cravat. He is not married as he has not been able to fully consider the many proposals of marriage that have been ex-

Home For Aged Auxiliary Plan May Luncheon

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Jewish Home for Aged held their monthly Board Meeting at the home of Mrs. Nathan Siegel, Congress Street. Plans were made for the Donors' Luncheon which will take place May 22nd at the Home. Mrs. Nathan Siegel is chairman of reservations, with Mrs. Joseph Larkin co-chairman. Others on the committee are: Mesdames Saul Marcus, Arnold Goodman, Samuel Silverman, Samuel Comeras, Ben Levi, Thomas Bernstein, and Mrs. Samuel Barnstone.

The following is a correction on the election of officers: Mrs. Oscar Tabachnick, 1st Vice-Pres.; and Mrs. Sadye Shatz, 2nd Vice-Pres.

tended. I should like to clear up one more misconception before we leave him, permanently, I hope. He is not losing his hair because he never had any. Also any resemblance to the top of his head and a shorn cocoon is purely intentional.

To Milt, Sidney, Oscar, Bobie, Harold, Dickey, Eppie and all, I'm sorry that I haven't written oftener, but exposing this fraud to the unsuspecting people of this community has been foremost on my mind and I've been scarcely able to think of anything else. I'll drop you fellows all a line real soon if I have to hire advertising space in the "Bulletin" to do it.

Young Judea News

By Shorty Berenson

What a swell time we all had at the Oaks last Sunday afternoon. A good crowd of boys and girls showed up and had a lot of fun singing Palestinian songs and dancing the Hora. The new songs learned were Hevenu Sholom Aleichem and Sholom Chaverin.

The members of the Kadimah Club attended the Roosevelt memorial Services at the Congress Street Synagogue last Saturday and listened attentively as Rabbi Greenbaum memorialized our great President.

Miss Gertrude Serulnick, Vice-President of Young Judea, will be our guest speaker at the next meeting, so everybody is urged to attend the meeting promptly at 2:30.

"Youth Carries On" To Be Presented By Center Youth

"Youth Carries On," the Center Youth musical show, will be produced and will play for two nights sometime towards the end of May. Co-Presidents Thelma Resnick and Alvin Mersky announced Wednesday night.

The show, which will have a cast of twenty-five boys and girls, will be an original production satirizing present day radio and drama. There will be a special skit devoted to Center activities. Rose Snider, Harriet Tabor and Jerry Waxman have written the book and music for the show, and Waxman will produce the revue. The choral work will be under the direction of Mrs. Barnett I. Shur, and Mrs. Max Fischman will direct the dance sequences. Joseph LaReis is designing the sets and the lighting plot.

Ticket Chairman, Arlene Goffin, reports so much interest in the revue that five hundred tickets are being printed for distribution. Watch For "Youth Carries On."
