A growing project

Seniors are so far the "young" that more than two thirds would help. Mrs. Lena Berger, co-president of the Senior Citizens Friendship Club, is looking for 100 more to be added and just a helping hand from Alvin Greenman of CSE. These Mrs. Greenman was inspired Thursday with 61 people.

The young the volunteers of the Year 1980 during a campaign was doing with their volunteers who give generously of time and talent. Also mentioned was Mrs. Berger for her tireless business and growth of the club. The two were held on a special event of National Nursing Home Week, May 11-17. (photos from by Scott Weisberg)

SENIOR CITIZENS FRIENDSHIP CLUB

Aug. By Alvin Green 1980

The Senior Citizens Friendship Club has presented five slate of officers for the coming year:

President - Lillian Zipes
 Vice-President - Ma Stoddy
 Treasurer - Fred Singer
 Secretary - Bonnie Wolf
 Scrap Book - Marice Brownstein
 Program - Helen Michalske

Edith Leiberman
 Joseph Greenk Ebers - Sued Peter
 Loggason - Heman Arnold
 Financial Secretary - Sador Droner

The various activities included a successful yard sale, and an outing to Canada. The highlight of the summer program was the Annual Banquet held in August at the home of Paula and David Adelson. The attendees were greeted by the Senior Citizens and the sons, Mr. and Mrs. Adelson. About 75 people attended. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Paltrowick, Mr. and Mrs. David Stein, Mrs. Louise Hartenstein, a representative of the Task Force, and several guests from the area (radio) homes. David Stein presented a delightful program of humorous tales.

Future plans for the group include a wood song trip to Saratoga, New York. Tentative plans are also being made for a fall village tour.

A lot been a busy and happy matter.

The Annual Mothers Day Luncheon was held May 13th at the Red Lion. A beautiful luncheon was served. An absolutely delicious buffet was served to each guest. The funds were prepared and donated by Freda Miller. Mrs. Miller's gesture was done in loving memory of her mother, Sadie Steiner, and her siblings, Sadie Steiner, and Mrs. Wilkey's mother, Sarah Brown.

The guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Alan Owen, Co. President of the Senior Citizens' President, Lilian Engle presented Mr. Owen with a gift in appreciation of his dedicated work with the group. The guest speaker was Mrs. Lawrence Pukler. Mrs. Pukler, a delightful and sparkling lady, is a retired school teacher. The Ladies Auxiliary was started in memory of her husband, Mr. Pukler, who was suddenly predeceased and proved to be an extremely revealing experience for her audience.

Other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. David Shuler, Mr. Shuler was a former Executive Director here at the Center. He was the person responsible for the organization of the first Jewish Community Center, Senior Citizens group. All of the friends were happy to see him again.

The group was delighted to receive Mrs. Silver as a new member. Mrs. Silver occupied a special invitation to the Senior Citizens at an Open House Party to be given at her home in honor of her husband's 100th birthday. MAJES, TDW!

Before the month Mr. and Mrs. Silver attended the luncheon. The program closed with the singing of God Bless America led by Adine Kuth.

Summer plans include a Visit to the Falls. The Annual Show, September 13. The Annual Show Luncheon will be held August 4 at the home of Paula and David Adeline.

Mother's Day Festival

By Mrs. Robert Rosen

A group of well over 100 senior citizens enjoyed the first annual Mother's Day Tea at home of Senior Citizens Club. The women from the Daily Activities, Brotherhood, Beth Israel Synagogue, First Park Church Women's League, and the church visited very fast and served delicious home made party. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Epstein, President and Vice, President of the Senior Citizens group, passed the tea and coffee. During dinner, Mrs. Viner played organ music which greatly added to the beauty of the afternoon. Mrs. Moritz's outfit of the white and yellow that she bought in New York by Mrs. John King, one of our Senior Citizens. Mrs. John King, an officer in the Senior Citizens, President Daily gave out the prizes. The prize for the most grand grandchild was won by Mrs. Watson. Paul Napp's mother, who was visiting, brought Mrs. Sade Fine and the most grandchildren and Mrs. Susan Stern, the most children. The prize for the youngest child went to Mrs. Helen Carter.

After this, the Harmon Sisters did a few water from "Your Best Year Home". Their performance was excellent and a good time was had by all who attended. It is our hope that this tea will be held each year. Many thanks go to all who helped make it such a huge success.

Senior Citizens Friendship Club The Outstanding Worker

Edward Schinsky, Executive Director of the Jewish Community Center, presents Mrs. Morris Rosenbaum with a citation for being the outstanding worker of the Senior Citizens Friendship Club. She has also been president of the organization for the past two years. Mrs. Lillian Epstein, new president, watches on the ceremony.

Senior Citizens Friendship Club Holds Elections

During October the Senior Citizens Friendship Club held its Annual Meeting and Elections at 22 Union for the evening.

Officers that were elected for the coming year were: President, Alice Schifano; Secretary, Pearl Shapiro; Treasurer, Lillian Epstein; Vice-President, Alex Goren; 2nd Vice-President, Dora Segal; Recording Secretary, Esther Dreyfus; Financial Secretary, Pearl Shapiro; and the Executive Board: Mr. Kaddy, Advisor, Melina Viner, Advisor.

Something new

The Senior Citizens of the Jewish Community Center hosted a Hanukkah meal featuring traditional latkes, or potato pancakes, prepared by Anna Golan and Gail Segal. The celebration included the distribution by Shirley Berger of U.S. and Israeli flags, for the newly re-dedicated community center. The flags were purchased by the senior citizens with money they won last year at the Bazaar Fair when the group was judged to be the "best" in the area.

Alfred Adarod led the group in prayer as he lit the Hanukkah candles, and described the religious significance of the holiday. Mr. Adarod was born in Russia 80 years ago and emigrated to the U.S. when he was 15. His 10 brothers and sisters all arrived in the country separately, but the closely knit family supported each other in establishing themselves in this country. Two years ago he moved from Lakewood, Mass. to Ocean Springs, Fla. in the city of Marine City.

After Keith played the piano while Alex Goren, the Center director, led the singing. Dressed along by his daughter, Lisa Goren, included Rabbi Alan Kohnsky, Mr. and Mrs. Gold Ryan, Center pianist Harry Tabor, and Mrs. Thelma and her mother, Miriam Goren.

Officers, president, Lillian Epstein of JCC, and head of the Bazaar (JCC group) also were there.

In June, a Travel Sale at the home of Lena Schor. In August a Barbecue was held at our executive hosts David and Paula Alderman. In September a trip to Stevensville Mountain, at our own expense for five days. Had a wonderful time and hope that more Jewish people will come along. We will leave at 6:00 A.M. Monday morning, September 1, 1966 (Labor Day) and will return Friday night.

LAIVKE LUNCHEON PLANNED BY SENIOR CITIZENS FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Annual Laive Luncheon will take place on December 10th at 12 noon.

Spokes leaders and the Academy children will entertain and it is planned to be a most pleasant afternoon.

The regular meeting days of the Club has been changed to the second Thursday of each month instead of the second Wednesday.

A change has also been decided on the Canteen Trip in the Fall. The members decided to go to the Borough Hotel instead of the Stevensville Country Club, just for a change of pace. Any desire to go on the trip may make reservations by calling Lillian Erpke at 942-9615 as reservations should be made at this time as requested by the hotel.

The bus leaves from the Jewish Community Center and stops back at Town Hall on Broadway. The price is $10.00 which includes door to door service, use of all hotel facilities, day time activities, night trip safety entertainment, a good complimentary cocktail party and more. The bus also includes the beautiful views, tips for waiters, hot dogs, baggage, jackets, and of course, the bar ride to and from the Country Club and two rides to $75.00 and the balance August 1st. October, a foliage trip was taken to Mount Airy and lunch at Acadia Park.

SENIOR CITIZENS FRIENDSHIP CLUB PLANS ACTIVITIES GALORE

At the Regular Meeting of the Friendship Club held on June 10th the following reports and activities were presented:

SENIOR CITIZENS FRIENDSHIP CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL CHANUKAH LUNCHEON

Thursday, December 14th, in the Lion Auditorium of the Center, the Friendship Club enjoyed a luncheon luncheon and, of course, the traditional latkes was served. Many guests accompanied the Hebrew Academy Chorus in a staged program.

The Club discussed their trip to the Canteen Hotel Fall and a decision was made to go to the Borough Hotel. A deposit has been paid.

Many excellent programs have been enjoyed, in particular, Grace Shuler (Mrs. David) gave a very interesting talk at the November meeting on the importance of latkes in our lives.

Please note if anyone desires to go on a road vacation in September to the Canteen, call Mrs. Erpke at 942-9615.
