Center Reflects Needs of People

*Paul Hirsch
President
Jewish Community Center*

During the past year we have taken significant steps to make the Jewish Community Center an exciting program agency of the community. It must be remembered that J.C.C. is but a reflection of the needs of the people it serves. To be truly successful in this endeavor we need your support and involvement. It is to this that the Board of Directors and the Center staff have pledged themselves.

Joan, the children, and I wish each of you a happy and healthy New Year.
Paul Hirsch

As Rosh Hashana approaches, it is time to reflect upon the past as we anticipate the future. This reflection and anticipation involve not only our personal lives as individuals but also on our membership in the Jewish community of Portland.

Each of us must make a commitment to strengthen Portland Jewry. We must recognize the stake we have in our community's growth and development so that as we approach the future we can be confident that our community will prosper.

The New Year seems to be an especially appropriate time for such dedication.

To all of you, I wish a healthy New Year filled with happiness and understanding.

Nancy Sutin
Executive Dir.
Jewish Comm. Ctr.

Time for Reflection and Anticipation

*Nancy Sutin
Executive Director
Jewish Community Center*

Last year I spoke of the partnership between the various Jewish communities (local, national and international) and the need to continue to work...“as one”.

Today, we have periodic joint meetings of the Federation and the Center Executive Committees to begin a cohesive planning process for capital expenditure such as new facilities and new equipment.

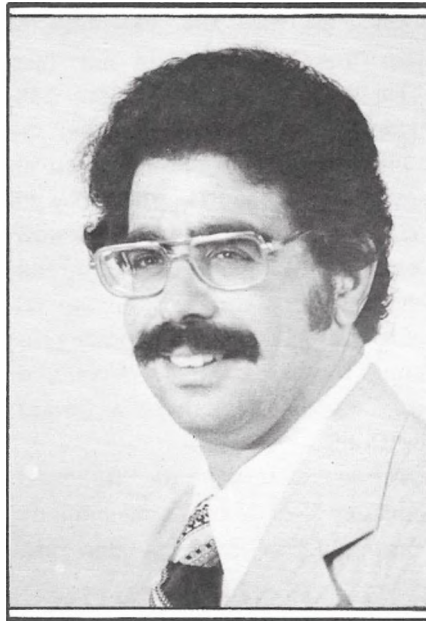

Today we have a Jewish community newspaper (sponsored by the Federation) which serves as a vehicle to inform the total Jewish community of Southern Maine about Center and other Jewish organizations events and happenings.

The process has begun...we are beginning to work “as one.”

The Federation Board of Directors, my family and I wish all of you health and success in the coming year.

Shalom.

Sanford Cutler
Executive Director

Southern Maine

New Concept Broadens Opportunities

The essential purpose of each Jewish organization is to bring about social change calculated to enhance Jewish life.

The Jewish Federation-Community Council of Southern Maine is proud to have a Jewish Community Center here in Portland that not only adheres to this concept, but is attempting to broaden the opportunities made available to each member of the community through its new and creative WOW (without walls) programming.

I am confident that the Center will continue to provide this Jewish community with the wide variety of programs designed to expand each member's creative talents and interests in living a more meaningful Jewish life.

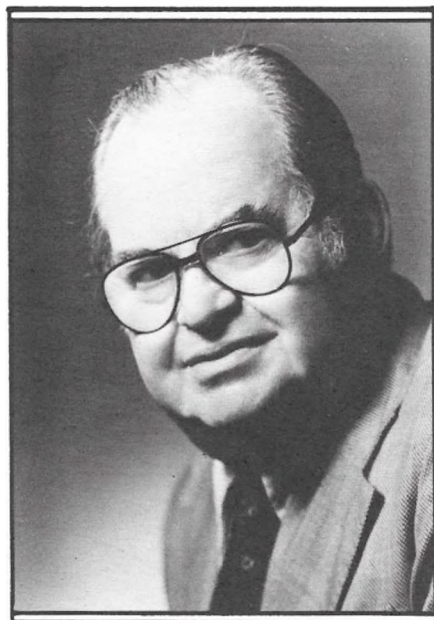

Elaine, our children and I wish each of you a healthy and happy New Year.

Shalom,

David Lewis

A Rosh Hashanah Message
By ROBERT L. ADLER
President, JWB

Meant To Be A Nation of Scholars

The High Holy Days are a time for celebration and affirmation. They are also a time for assessing challenges and charting new directions.

We of the JWB family find ourselves more challenged than ever to grapple with the priorities of strengthening Jewish identity, enhancing the quality of Jewish life and deepening the relationship between North American Jewry and Israel and, indeed, with Jews throughout the world.

There is a community to build and to strengthen—whether it be civilian or military, in North and South America, Israel, Europe, and elsewhere. We in JWB see ourselves, the Jewish Community Center, Federation, and other agencies of the Jewish communal network as having unique roles in providing the leadership, services and programs so essential for a vibrant Jewish life.

The password to the future is community—the entire community working together for a common goal.

In his “Farewell Song” to the Israelites, Moses characterized us as a “dor tahapukhoth” — a generation of turn-about. The illustrious Dubner Magid illustrated this Biblical phrase in the following manner: In a European shtetl a Chassidic Rebbe was about to marry off his daughter to a son of a “baal agalah” — a cabbie. The Rebbe and the cabbie each decided that, in order not to embarrass his counterpart, each should don the professional garments of the other at the wedding. The Rebbe appeared wearing boots, a leather jacket and a cabbie’s cap; the cabbie wore the ecclesiastic garments of the Rebbe. Of course each was mistaken for the other.

Israel today projects a militaristic image and appears to the world as a Spartan state. But we were really meant to be a nation of scholars. Moses, too, chided our forefathers for assuming a different role from that which G-d assigned to us.

On the local scene, the Jewish Community Center and the Jewish Federation have demonstrated their ability to mobilize their communities in cooperative efforts.

On the national scene, 17 major Jewish agencies just this past year worked together on a Holocaust materials project—a multi-agency cooperative endeavor on a scale rarely if ever before seen. The project demonstrated a practical way of how we can marshal our skills and talents most effectively and get the most out of community dollars. Inter-agency cooperation means reduced duplication of efforts and reduced competition among agencies. Now that this has been demonstrated it can be applied to future projects in American Jewish life.

On behalf of the entire JWB family, I extend warmest greetings for the New Year and pray that the year ahead may be one of peace, happiness and fulfillment.

Leon M. Mozeson
Rabbi, Congregation Shaarey Tphiloh

If peace will come to the Middle East then maybe we shall be able to concentrate on the study of Torah and nature, two things which G-d created. A year of shalom, good health and progress to all!

By Rabbi Leon M. Mozeson

Dr. Harry Z. Sky
Rabbi, Temple Beth El

It's been said being Jewish is living a life of concern. Concern for the great and concern for the small; for the least and for the most.

We err when in our Jewishness our focus becomes insular. When we say our only concern is our immediate world, whether it be of our family, of our people or of our community.

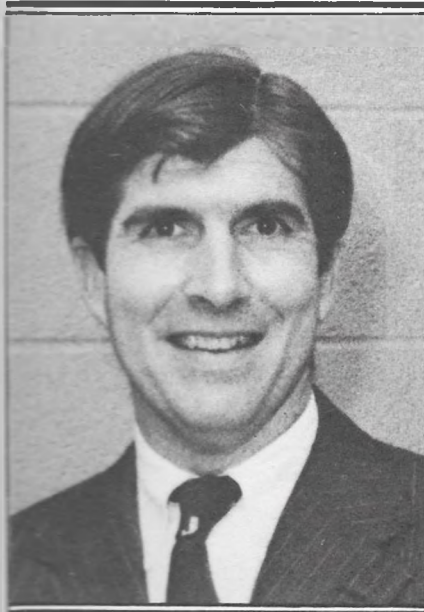

Rosh Hashonah, in our tradition, is not only the new year of the Jewish people but it is the new year of the world. When we speak of the need to re-establish our relationship with God and mankind, we share this message with all mankind. Therefore, this Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur, when we stand to pray, let's open our hearts and embrace the world, for if peace comes to it then we too shall taste it.

If Peace Comes to World We Too Shall Taste It

Ruth and our children join in wishing you a Shana Tova.

Center Without Walls Concept Commended

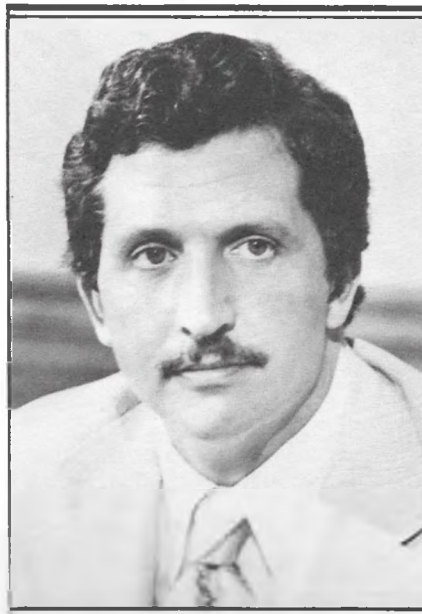

With our common interest in strengthening the family, we look forward to our continuing joint efforts to improve the quality of life in Greater Portland.

Curtis M. Scribner
President

In behalf of the United Way of Greater Portland, I am pleased to send our greetings to members of the Jewish Community Center family as another New Year begins.

Over the years we have valued our relationship with the Center and the families and individuals it has served.

We commend the Center's innovative approach with the "center without walls" concept during the past year

Unique Contribution Vital Part of Community Life

The City of Portland has many sources of pride — its renewed downtown, its beautiful environment, but most of all, its people. I think one could characterize our city as being unique with its reputation of people caring for people.

The Jewish Community Center is an integral part of this relationship. It provides to our community a very unique contribution which is a vital part of our community life. I would like to extend the best wishes of the employees of the City of Portland for a most prosperous and successful New Year and express to you our appreciation for the contributions you have made to all of us.

Center Women Aware of Responsibility

Center Women has continued to support the Jewish Community Center because it recognizes that even though we are no longer using our building facility, that, as an agency, the Center is continuing to serve the needs of our Jewish Community.

We can be particularly proud of our role in supplying some of the equipment for our Day Camp and for the funds we raise for scholarships.

I hope that Center Women will always be aware of their responsibility to our Center and that some day in the near future we may see the start of a campaign for a new building.

My family and I take this opportunity to wish all a Year of Good Health and Happiness and Peace throughout the World.

Men's Club Strong Force in Center Success

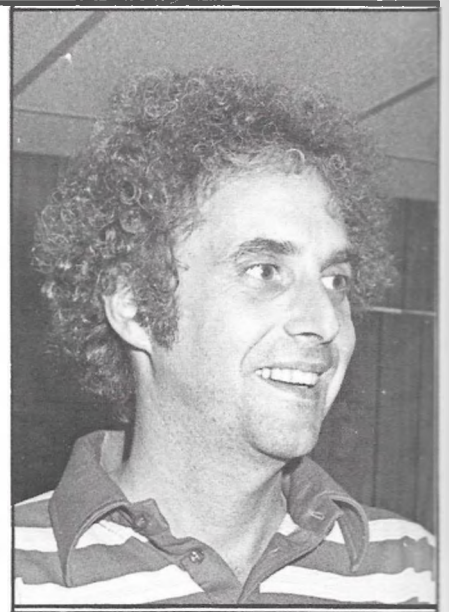

As president of the Center Men's Club, I want to express my sincere wishes for this coming year to you and your families for a happy, healthy and prosperous year.

Center Men's Club has become an active organization in the Jewish Community this past year. Our major project, BINGO, has helped eliminate the Center's operating deficit. It has become a significant source of monies for special programs and projects. If you are interested in helping us at Bingo, please contact me.

Center Men's Club is backing the Center Without Walls concept and we hope the entire community will do the same. Last year was very successful and this year promises to be the same. We would also like to wish Paul Hirsch the best of luck in the coming year.

Ann and our children join me in wishing you a very happy and healthy new year.

This season at Center Day Camp was unique. It is difficult to remember another summer when so many things were happening in camp. Our one hundred and seventy campers were always on the move during the Summer of '78.

The daily camp program offered activities in the six areas that have become the programmatic backbone of CDC: swimming, campcraft, boating, athletics, drama/music and arts and crafts. This year, each specialty director presented an enriched program: our campers spent their days learning macrame, making their own slides, perfecting their sailing skills, or just enjoying a game of softball. The lower ball field saw a great deal of action thanks to the addition of a new backstop donated by Center Women's Club. CWC gave a big boost to our sailing program with the purchase of three new sailboats. As in the past, Center Women's Club proved again to be CDC's guardian angel.

Perhaps the most exciting part of this summer at CDC was our special events program. It seemed as though at least once a week one group or another would be involved in a special project or preparing for a trip outside of camp. We visited several camps near CDC, making new friends with the children at Camp Winaco, Camp Walden and Camp Naomi. We also hosted these camps for playdays at CDC. Our younger campers went to the Gray Animal Farm and the Maine Fish Hatchery while the CITs took a hiking trip overnight. Some of our older children went on an all-day canoe trip while others tried out their canoeing skills on an overnight venture. Those who were particularly adventurous climbed Pleasant Mountain on CDC's hiking overnight. Perhaps the highlight of Harpotka's season was their trip to the White Mountains; this trip was made possible through the efforts of the campers themselves as they danced nonstop for four hours in CDC's first Dance Marathon. As a result, they raised all the money they needed to go to New Hampshire for an unforgettable experience.

But trips weren't the only special events at CDC — staying right on camp grounds provided some exciting times. The camp carnival, the Days of the Twelve Tribes, All-Camp Games, Topsy-Turvy Dayro and many other special programs made the summer go by very quickly. Of course the overnights at CDC were eagerly anticipated by all the campers as were the different lunch programs such as the bubble gum-blowing contest and the ever-popular water balloon toss.

This year was an exceptional season at Center Day Camp. The success we achieved was due in large part to a talented group of specialists who created innovative programs throughout the summer. Also, our general staff enjoyed their campers and tried to make each day a special one.

Personally, I would like to thank the CDC supervisory staff of Jeff Laughlin, Ed Levine, Ken Levinsky and Phyllis Winer for their support, encouragement and understanding throughout the summer. Special thanks to Paul Hirsch and Arleen Schwartz for all their hard work and help throughout the year.

If you fall into any one of these categories, or if you can think of any others, please call Ellie Spiegel, secretary, 773-0310, so that she can add your name to the official roster.

For a recap of the '77-'78 season, the Happy Hookers — captained by Karen Mack — wound up in first place, with Chi-Chi's Champions taking the No. 2 spot. In case you're interested, the other Hookers are Ellie Spiegel, Sylvia Sandler, Judy Goldberg and Shirley Lerman. Chi-Chi's champs were Betsy Webber, Rhoda Nathanson, Sophie Hirsch and Ruthie Finn.

Other trophy recipients at the annual banquet were C.J. Repeal Mack with a high average of 93.5; Chi-Chi again with her high single of 122; and Evelyn Litman with the high triple, 318. Phyllis Harrisburg won laurels as most improved bowler and Ellie Spiegel scored with perfect

Athletic Program Changes Home Nonetheless Successful

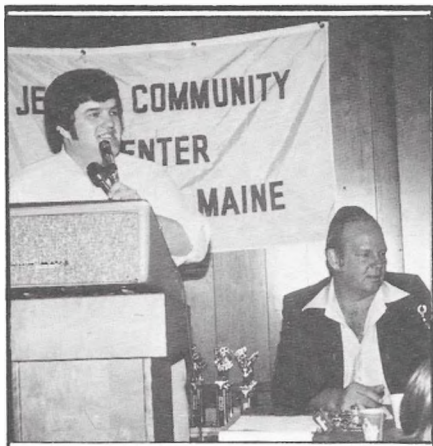

Although scattered over the environs of the city, the athletic program enjoyed another good year. In some areas the locale led to a plus in the program.

Among schools in use were Lyman Moore, Lincoln Junior, Riverton, Westbrook College and Waynflete. Riverton, in particular, with its swimming pool and other new facilities led to better and more varied programming.

As usual, basketball drew the largest turnouts, and also as usual the Midgets turned out the largest numbers. Forty-two third, fourth, fifth and sixth graders created organized chaos in high decibels. Stars of the future.

Dave Allen makes awards

The Tweens had an undefeated season, winning nine games. This group can often have a revolving roster as a boy drops out for a time to prepare for his Bar Mitzvah — or a Bar Mitzvah party. Among players were Marc Jacobson, Dave Rosen, Lenny Levy, Jay Baker, Jon Cope, Dave Agger, Dave Pollack, Josh Romanow, Marc Lerman, Jeff Silverman, Jim Cohen, Sam DiPhillippo, Brian Goldberg, Danny Aronson, Eric Goldman, Jeff Saltz, Dave Epstein and Alan Carp. It was definitely a good year.

The Teens, too, had a good year. Although uninvited to the NE Regional Tournament as defending champions, the team defeated Brockton in overtime 55-54. A combined Frosh-Soph team did travel to Worcester and took championship laurels, beating the host team 68-59 in the first game and Lawrence in the title game, 70-61.

Retiring Athletic Director Dave Allen, assisted by Joe Connolly, coached the above teams.

What's the call

In softball, the Greens won the Open A Division title with an excellent 17-4 record. It was the first championship since the teams entered slow pitch competition. Previous titlists were fast pitch Center teams in 1961-62 and 64.

In city double elimination playoffs the team dropped its first game, 8-7, to eventual champion Press Herald, then won three straight before a second defeat.

Three Musketeers

Helping the Green to this outstanding season were playing - coach Dave Brennerman, Dave Cope, Robby Gilbert, Herm Blumenthal, Mike Cope, Jeff Laughlin, Ed Levine, Larry Fineberg, Peter Litman, Ray Messier, Mike Clenott, Scott Koocher, Shlomo Cohen, Dave Turesky, Paul Aranson and Alan Weissman.

The Blue had its usual slow start and good finish as first year players improved over the season. The 5-16 record was deceptive as in only a handful of games was the team outclassed.

The team was advanced one division from last year.

Heading home

Laughing Lin

Scott Spiegel was the team's scorekeeper.

The AKs were also moved up one division because of the previous year's record, but found itself sporting a 4-17 slate. However, the team did have its bright moments in the second half. In post season play the AKs won their first game ever, defeating the Blue (still looking for their missing pitcher).

Playing were player-coach Steve Goodman, Don Levy, Burt Epstein, Bruce Ruben, Marshall Mack, Everett Mack, Dave Allen, Saul Goldberg, Bob Litman, Stan Elowitch, Sandy Cutler, Bob Levi, Joel Gold, Ira Levine, Sam Koren, Jack Wexler and Neal Stillman.

The Sports Affair was held away from the Center for the first time ever. Shaarey Tphiloh was the scene and its kitchen crew made the move more than worthwhile. Mike Emrick, the voice of the Maine Mariners, was the feature speaker. He was an excellent choice.

Alan Mack was the recipient of the President's Cup, given to the graduating senior with the best grades who has participated at least two years on a Center team.

Foul shooting winners were Jill Finberg, Michael Webber, Sam Pollack, Jon Cope, Dave Brenner and Herman Blumenthal.

Joel Baker, Amy Goldberg, Jason Romanow, Jon Cope, Dave Pollack and Mike Carp received most improved awards.

PROGRAM.

Who helped over 5 million people learn to lose weight while they enjoyed foods like spaghetti and meat balls, cheeseburgers, real cocoa milkshakes? Who has over 7 million hours of classroom experience, 15 successful years in creating one of the world's most-advanced weight loss programs?

Who has a world-wide organization of dedicated professionals—doctors, nutritionists, behavioral psychologists, gourmet chefs and thousands of skilled lecturers, all with a single mission... your success?

When it comes to picking the best way to lose weight we think the choice is a pretty slim one.
