Workshop Membership Campaign in Full Swing

Center Workshop's membership campaign is in full swing. If someone hasn't asked you yet whether you want to renew your membership or to become one, it's because your telephone has been busy or someone else has been busy.

Don't wait until the last minute to get yours. And by the last minute we mean the ticket exchange for the first major production, which already is in preparation.

Many of you attended the delightful presentation of "Morning Star" recently at the Center. That was just the first of the grand programs being lined up for Workshop members. Others will be announced as the season unfolds. The only requirement is that you be a Center and Workshop member.

As the autumn leaves come down — won't you?? Come down, that is, to the Center on Sunday evening, Nov. 4, at 8:30 p. m.

The Young Adults have planned a typical New England style Party and Dance. Miss Lollie Levenson, who will most likely be known as Miss New England States after this undertaking, will be Chairman.

Charming and talented Arthur Pinansky, known on the Rialto as Art Preston, will be on stage covering entertainment assisted by Miss Miriam Kaatz, Miss Rita Schwey, Miss Jean Gordon and a couple of well wishers who wish to remain anonymous.

Miss Jocelyn Lavin Featured In Presentation Of Dramatic Monologues

"The Center Women's Club proudly announces!" How often have we seen this in print in this bulletin for the past thirteen years. But never before have we felt the pride and excitement that we do this week in announcing the program for our "Bas Mitzvah Gift" donors to be held Wednesday, Nov. 7 at 1:15 P. M.

JOCELYN LAVIN

Miss Jocelyn Lavin whose rare talent so many of us enjoyed last spring at a Workshop evening, will present a program of dramatic monologues.

Jocelyn, one of our own Portland girls, has had an impressive background for one so young. She is a graduate of Skidmore College where she majored in the drama. She has had six years of summer stock, three of which were at Ogunquit and Peaks Island Playhouses where many of our community saw and enjoyed her excellent work. After her graduation from Skidmore she spent a year as a leading lady with

Full Program Planned By New Co-chairmen of Arts and Crafts Classes

The Sunday afternoon Arts and Crafts class will get underway this Sunday with Mrs. Ben Mestetsky and Mrs. Robert Loeb as co-chairmen in charge.

Mrs. Mestetsky has been associated with the craftwork during the past few years both as a scout leader in the Center and with the Girl Scouts in their Day Camp. Mrs. Loeb was in charge of last year's Play Center program. These co-chairmen have already met with Hal Schneiderman, Activities Director, and many interesting projects are in store for the children.

We are asking the parents to cooperate by making available to your own child certain materials which they may be called on to bring to the Center. This request will be made only for special projects and we know you will cooperate so that your youngster can have a broader, more interesting and enjoyable crafts program.

The schedule for classes is as follows:

Boys 10-14 yrs. — 1:30-2:15 p. m.

Co-ed 6-9 yrs. — 2:20-3:00 p. m.

Pioneer Women To Hold Supper

Mrs. Benjamin Edison and Mrs. Myer Levitan have been appointed co-chairmen of arrangements for a covered dish supper Nov. 1 in the Jewish Community Center.

Plans were made when the executive board of the Pioneer Women's Organization met with Mrs. Edison on Monument Street recently. Mrs. Benjamin Lourie and Mrs. Philip Garon were assisting hostesses.

Mrs. Alfred Punsky and Mrs. Harold Lerman were appointed to assist the co-chairmen. Mrs. Robert Mack was announced financial secretary taking the place of Mrs. Harry Brickman who resigned. Mrs. Arthur Lubin, Mrs. Solomon Slotzky and Mrs. Sol Branz were named new board members. Mrs. Branz will read the invocation at the supper meeting.

Mrs. Alex Miller of Quincy Street will entertain the board Nov. 15, assisted by Mrs. Kopel and Miss Theresa Goodman.

Shaarey Tphiloh Group Plan Major Social Events

November is a busy month for Shaarey Tphiloh members. Monday evening, Nov. 19, will feature a Membership Tea. As usual hospitality chairman, Bessie Edison, has a special treat in store. Rose Zulozsky, program chairman, has been securing talent that will please all. A delightful musical program featuring Barbara and Colene Kelley accompanied by Mrs. Cole Kelley will furnish the entertainment for the evening.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, a donors dinner will be held in the Vestry. Beverley Boxstein is chairman of this affair, and has many surprises prepared. None other than Bessie Edison is in charge of the dinner. That's hint enough for all of us to save our appetites. Only Bessie can prepare the "Machels" that we all enjoy so much.

If you haven't already been contacted by Beverley to help plan this gala affair, give her a call. Her telephone number is 4-8007. Additional cooks, hostesses, etc. are needed. For tickets call Ida Modes — 3-8220 or Lillian Goldberg 3-0615 and they will see to it that a ticket is delivered to your door.

Put a circle around these two dates. Monday evening, Nov. 19. Wednesday evening, Nov. 28.

Married Couples Club To Hold Panel Discussion

An unusually stimulating program will highlight the next regular meeting of the Married Couples Club on Sunday, Nov. 4, at 8:00 p. m., in the vestry of the Newbury Street Synagogue.

Mr. Nathan Kops, Principal of the Portland Hebrew School, Mrs. Fay Glick and Mr. Irving Rothstein will discuss the topic: "What do parents have the right to expect of a Hebrew School?"

Approaching the problems of a Hebrew School education from the standpoints of teacher and parent, the panelists will examine the aims and policies of a Hebrew School in relation to the needs of its students. There will be ample time for questions and general discussion, to be followed by a period of general sociability and refreshments.

Now in its second year, the Married Couples Club was organized as a social club with some cultural aims. It was decided to devote a portion of each regular meeting to the general discussion of a significant and timely subject which has a bearing on Jewish life. Last month's topic was: Is it the duty of Jews to emigrate to Israel? Future meetings will discuss, among other subjects, the attitude of Jewish parents toward the participation of their children in school Christmas plays.

For further information concerning the Couples Club contact Harry Cope, 3-6743, or Ben Band, 5-1874. Better still, come to the next meeting on Sunday, Nov. 4.

Portland Hebrew School News

The school is happy to announce that it is publishing a bi-weekly magazine called "The Scroll." This magazine which will deal with interesting topics as well as Jewish educational values is not a dream but a reality. The first issue was distributed last week and the others are forthcoming. The school hopes to improve and enlarge this magazine to serve the interests of its readers, both old and young.

The first Sabbath Service was held on Oct. 27. Neil Newman and Thomas Brand were called upon the students to the Torah. Elaine Lerman was in charge of attendance. Herold Grunes took charge of the Skullcaps, Talaisim and Prayer books. Stanley Ber was the Cantor. Refreshments were prepared by the Ladies Auxiliary headed by Mrs. B. Glick, after the services.

Hadassah

Hadassah has received permission from the Federation to run a money raising affair for the benefit of the Medical Center in Jerusalem. This will take place on the afternoon of Jan. 8, Tuesday, at 1:00 P. M. Details about this wonderful afternoon will be announced soon. Save the day.

Thrift Shop Board Lists New Chairmen

Members of the Thrift Shop committee met recently with Mrs. Samuel J. Cohen, on Vesper Street. Newly appointed chairmen were announced, as follows: Recording Secretary, Mrs. Samuel Goldfarb; Mrs. Sadie Bernstein, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Thomas Bernstein, Transportation Chairman, assisted by Mrs. George Finberg, Mrs. Lawrence Parris, and Mrs. Abraham Venner. Mrs. Cohen, and Mrs. Samuel Levenson, are co-chairman of the Thrift Shop, and Mrs. David Cutler is treasurer.

There will be a pick-up on Sunday, Nov. 4. Members of Hadassah and Council are asked to volunteer a few hours for service in this project. Trucks will pick up your contributions, but we need your help to sort things, mark them, and wait on customers.

Thrift Shop is a growing business and is dependent on the co-operation of the public. If you have anything to donate, please call Sue Levenson at 3-2912, or Nellie Cohen at 3-1098. If you have a few hours to help call the same people — they are waiting to hear from you.

B'nai B'rith Plans "Mr. & Mrs." Night

The incredible Dr. Stanley Jaks, entertainer and psychologist, from Zurich, Switzerland, will be here to amuse you and puzzle you on Nov. 7. He knows what's on your mind before you yourself know, and he will predict your actions before you make them. He will keep you on the edge of your chairs every second, make you laugh, and gasp, not only because of what he says but because of what he does.

Who is this Dr. Jaks? Come and see for yourself, at the "Mr. and Mrs." night, of the Cumberland Lodge & Chapter, B'nai B'rith on November 7th, at 8:30 P. M., at the Jewish Community Center, Refreshments will be served.

a Civic Theater Stock Company of Pennsylvania. At present Joe is living in Boston where she is under contract to make a series of thirty movies for Television.

Certainly we have found an outstanding young lady whose personal charm, poise and beauty together with her talent, will crown C. W. Hub's thirteen years of providing membership with the best in entertainment.

Names! Names! Names! This "Basitzvah" affair could never be as sweet (excuse, Mr. Shakespeare) without the impressive list of efficient women who have been planning our celebration these past three weeks.

Frances Davis, the general chairman has inspired everyone with her enthusiasm and competent organizing. She has appointed the following "aides."

Freda Schilling is in charge of the Guest Book — Doris Herman is in charge of Correspondence — Lenore Schneiderman (put to work already) is Keeper of the Treasury — Missie Gottschalk, chief checker — Nettie Gershenson, Mildred Baker, Ethel Cohen, Lorraine Mollist, committee of helpers-at-allings — Syb Cohen, Lucille Lavin, Hansel and Gretel fame, Music, Music! — Lillian Silverman and Annette Goldberg, in charge of "You'll have to wait and see."

To please the palate? A luscious Bas Mitzvah dinner prepared by Della Kates and a committee each of whom match Bella's reputation as a yummy cook. They are Celia Sherman, Gertrude Gordon, Ida Cooper, Anne Gordon, Lillian Wickman, Fay Glick, Rose Levine and Mickey Brand. Could you find a better company anywhere to provide some real Bas Mitzvah gastronomic delights!

To please the eye? Decorations by Nancy Cutler and Lillian Schlafman whose "artistry" is familiar to all of us.

To greet and seat you? Barbara Sherman and her committee of C. W. Hub past presidents who will not let you down!

You just can't afford to miss it. A delicious dinner, a wonderful program and lots of fun. Your "Basitzvah" gift is $5.13 — the money to be used to beautify and improve the facilities in the building which has been our Jewish community home for thirteen years.

Plan Paper-Pencil Day

The next meeting of the National Council of Jewish Women will be held at the Community Center Tuesday afternoon Nov. 6. At this meeting as a part of the Ship a Box project we are asking the women if they would please bring paper, pencils or crayons to be shipped to the kindergartens in Israel. There are 300 kindergartens in Israel which lack work material for the children because of this shortage of paper and pencils. The need is very urgent among school children. Please try to bring a contribution.

The speaker for the afternoon will be Miss Helen Weiss, social worker for the Child and Family Welfare Services. Miss Weiss's topic for the afternoon will be "Do Your Children Present Problems as Brothers and Sisters." Those who have been privileged to hear Miss Weiss know that this will be both an interesting and entertaining afternoon which no one will want to miss.

Program chairman for the afternoon will be Joanne Silverman, President of the Iota Phi Sorority, who have been co-workers with Council in the Ship a Box Project.

Sunday Athletic Schedule

The gym will be available on Sunday, Nov. 4, for athletics. Bobby Agger, whom you all know from previous years will again be in charge of the athletic program.

Thanks Junior Hadassah

To the young ladies of Junior Hadassah we wish to offer our very deep-felt thanks for their help in the "B-Day" Breakfast held at the J.C.C. Sunday October 21 — serving coffee and then cleaning away after the show was over, was not the prettiest job for you lovelies — but certainly a job needed and well done.

Thanks to Jan Berman, Jean Gordon, Shirley Lerman, Barbara Richman, Vivian Goldfarb, Edythe Kroot, Helen Lerman, Dorothy Slade, and Reva Lerman of Junior Hadassah, we each truly appreciate your grand spirit and sincere assistance.

Thanks to Don Cutler, Bernie Cope, Jerry Sandler, Ruth Lerman, Ginney Posner, Diana Garon, Marilyn Levine, and Billie Cooper, of Center Youth.

Plea Made For Payments To Godfrey Camp Fund

Harold P. Nelson and Edward Sacknoff, co-chairmen of the Norman I. Godfrey Camp Fund are pleased with the response given to their plea for payments toward this fund. The money received from their recent request approximates $800.00 which has been applied to the diminishing principal of payment on the Center Day Camp.

In a joint statement made both of the men stated: "We know some of the donors have unintentionally forgotten to make this year's payment but have responded promptly to our reminder. This is evidenced by their prompt remittances."

Sacknoff and Nelson have also noted that some of the donors have also chosen to make the complete payment now instead of waiting for other statements. Such procedure helps us complete our payments and is greatly appreciated.

Portlanders Honored at J.W.B. Conference

At the business session of the 41st annual conference of the New England Section of the Jewish Welfare Board in Holyoke it was announced that Barnett I. Shur, former President of the Section, was appointed as one of the National Vice Presidents of the National Jewish Welfare Board. Mr. Shur is also chairman of the Field Service division of the Welfare Board. Prior to this announcement, a presentation of a scroll by the newly elected President of the New England Section was made to Mr. Shur for his "three crowded years of time, talents and remarkable leadership during his three year tenure as President of the section." The progress of the Center movement under Mr. Shur's guidance is a source of pride to all of us associated with him, and it is our pleasure to present the scroll to him!

Another appointment announced was the re-election of Louis Bernstein to the Board of Directors of the National Jewish Center Division.

Portlanders present at the Conference were — Mr. and Mrs. Barnett I. Shur, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Potter, Dr. Henry Pollard, Dr. Cyrus Briggs, Victor Taylor, Miss Miriam Kaatz, Miss Jean Gordon, Miss Charlotte Cutler, Miss Janice Berman; Ben Romanow and Arthur Pinansky.

BEN "Deems Taylor" ZOLOV

The first rehearsal for the Center Concert Orchestra brought together one of the most enthusiastic groups of musicians that has ever assembled under the baton of Clinton Graffam. Music must have been their primary avocation these past few months. A few vacancies exist. How about helping us meet our quota?

Music hath more than its charm methinks. Recently, I had the pleasure, along with several of my confreres listening to a most delightful and spontaneous musicale presented by one of our fine pediatricians, Dr. Ralph Heifetz. Dr. Ralph has the piano touch and feeling of the masters. Debussy's "Claire de Lune" and Selim Palmgrens "May Night." were interpreted as an artist's dream.

If any parents are concerned about their restless infants put aside the paregoric or extra bottle; music is a fine soporific.

P.S. No calls after 11:00 P. M. please.

Red Cross Offers Nurses Aid Course

The Portland Chapter of the American Red Cross is planning a Nurse's Aide Course to be given in the near future. The purpose of this course is to relieve the shortage of nurses in the local hospitals.

Nurse's Aides are volunteer workers between the ages of 18 and 55 with a high school education or its equivalent, and in good health. The course is eighty hours — thirty-four of them are on theory and forty-six hours are practical experience in the hospital. After the completion of the course the Nurse's Aide will be asked to give three or four hours voluntary service each week in the local hospitals.

If there are any women at the Center who are interested, call the Red Cross Chapter on State Street

Bonds, Bonds, Bonds! One week of Bonds for Israel, Starting off on Sunday, October 21, with a breakfast served by our Junior Hadassah Gals. It was Service with a capital S. The salesmen and saleswomen certainly covered the territory well! If you were left out, you missed a thrill. If you didn't buy one by Sunday October 29, then you should have after listening to James McDonald, first United States Ambassador to Israel and to Molly Picon, the Dainty Bundle of Yiddish Humor. After all it is a Good Investment so buy and sol es sein a be gezundt and mit interest too!

Say have you heard the latest? Al Goldman passing out cigars with covers because he became a Daddy of a singer. Just can't wait to hear you both harmonizing.

By the way who saw the Community Chest Parade? The best in years. Al Joachim and all the others who planned the Center Float deserve a lot of praise. We should be proud of a float that denotes an open door. That is what the Jewish Community Center is — an Open Door, to all. With that in thought how about digging down in your pockets and pocketbooks for a good size contribution to the Chest. The Center is a Red Feather Agency and if you want it to be a be gezundt, just give!

Oh, yes, must not forget the Radio Workshop. It should be really something with Dorothy Slade (the Sirene) and Arthur Pinansky (the Voice) giving of their time.

My heart just bursts with joy when I think of what goes on at the Center. To top it off there is the Jewish Federation Office which is another busy place. Just to let you in on something — one of our prominent legal minds pouring coffee and doing it so nicely. So nice of you Barney.

Well anyways until another time.

Portland Goes Over The Top With $225,000 In Bond Sales

Bond purchases totalling $225,000 were reported at the jam-packed Festival of Stars sponsored by the Portland Israel Bond Committee Sunday, October 28 in the Jewish Community Center.

More than 500 enthusiastic men and women attended the rally which climaxed weeks of strenuous effort in behalf of the State of Israel's 500 million dollar bond drive.

They cheered and applauded James McDonald, first U.S. Ambassador to Israel. They remained glued to their chairs for an hour and a half as Molly Picon entertained in her own inimitable fashion. And when the festivities ended near midnight they left for their homes secure in the knowledge that they had provided maximum support to the State of Israel's efforts to achieve self-sufficiency.

The local drive is now in its clean-up stage. Notwithstanding the outstanding results which have been achieved to-date there are substantial numbers of men and women who have not yet purchased bonds. Every effort will be made to reach them during the next few days.

B Day salesmen who have not yet contacted all of their bond prospects are urged to do so immediately and make their returns to the Israel Bond Office in the Jewish Community Center. Anyone desiring to buy bonds may do so by phoning or calling at the Israel Bond Office.

The Portland Israel Bond Committee wishes to publicly thank all who have been associated with the local drive either as salesmen or purchasers. At the same time, it calls the community's attention to the fact that payments on bond pledges as well as the pledges themselves— are necessary to assure the complete success of the bond issue. Pay for your bond now. Derive the immediate benefits of 3 and one half per cent interest and let your dollars go to work immediately for you and the State of Israel.
