

CAMP MODIN

for Boys/for Girls . . . Canaan, Maine 04924

3 hours from Boston

CAMP MODIN, the oldest private Jewish un-affiliated camp in New England, attracting children from all Jewish communities across the country and around the world. Our international camper body ranges from 7-17.

Dedicated to values which enhance lifelong friendships and self-reliance in a thoughtful Jewish cultural environment observing dietary laws.

We offer an array of programs that change daily/weekly emphasizing professional instruction in over 60 athletic, waterfront and elective activities in a non-competitive environment.

Waterfront • Tennis • Horseback Riding • High Ropes • Sports • The Maine Woods • Deep-Sea Fishing • White Mts. • Science & Nature

Directors: Dr. Amy and David Adler
Winter address: 58 Tamarack Way, Pleasantville, N.Y. 10570

(800) 648-5341 Fax: (914) 769-0946

REGISTRATION '90

מחנה יבנה Camp Yavneh

ברוכים הבאים

Northwood, New Hampshire 03261

A Department of the Hebrew College of Boston

EVERYONE LEARNS HEBREW NATURALLY

- on the sports field
- on the tennis courts
- in sailboats

in song and dance . . .

at CAMP YAVNEH, where, REGARDLESS of Hebrew background, the bright and creative child enjoys a program of combined athletic, cultural and social activities.

Shabbat & Kashrut Observed • Scholarship Assistance Available

KAYTANA

First-time overnight camping experience for youngsters entering 3rd and 4th grades.

Contact: Hebrew College
43 Hawes St., Brookline, Mass. 02146
(617) 232-8710 • 639-2722 (p.m.)

Director
Shoshana L. Marcus