Rabbi's Message

by Rabbi Lisa Vinikoor

Dear Beth Israel Community

I first want to express my gratitude for the warm welcome and support that you have shown my family with the birth of our child. Be it the gift of a warm meal, a knit sweater, a beautiful children's book, making a run to the supermarket or a friendly hello at the farmer's market or Café Crème, we've felt extraordinarily embraced by this community. Thank you. In addition, it was an honor to give Shira Dorit her name and be surrounded by you, our community, in the Beth Israel sanctuary. We feel so blessed.

Shira is named for two wonderful women whose qualities, we pray, she will inherit. Her first name is for my mom, Sheila who died two years ago. Sheila was a gentle yet strong woman, who loved music and taught piano. The name Shira, which means song in Hebrew, is a fitting remembrance of my mom. Dorit is for Alyssa's maternal grandmother Dorothy, who is 91 years old and thriving in Florida. She is a smart, congenial woman, and very connected to the Jewish community. We hope that the essence of the name Dorit, which means generation, will connect our Little One to the legacy of her generations past.

The birth of a child brings about new beginnings and hope. So too, the spring Jewish holidays are our communal opportunity for rebirth and possibility. Purim reminds us that we can try on a new costume to change our perspective, and that laughter can be a tool for hope even in difficult times. During Passover, we enact our journey from slavery to freedom, tasting the sweetness of rebirth. May we savor the upcoming early spring through celebration, song, and time together.

L'Shalom
Rabbi Vinikoor

תודה רבה
thank you

President's Message

by Marilyn Weinberg

Although the weather has certainly taken up a lot of our thoughts and energy this winter, we are fortunate at Beth Israel to be in the midst of some very exciting times.

The board has been very busy in undertaking a lot of work on several topics and issues that we had put on the back burner during our busy strategic planning and Rabbi search process. The Cemetery Committee led by Stan Lane has completed their update and is ready to talk to any members who plan to purchase plots in the cemetery. The cost of cemetery plots will be increasing.

The Bar/Bat Mitzvah Guidelines Committee has updated that document and it is ready for publication. You can access this document by going to our website:
<https://bethisrael-maine.org/BarMitzvahHandbook.pdf>

We have a new Social Action Committee that has been meeting and formulating a plan for our community. You will be hearing much more from them in the future.

The other very focused board group is our Finance Committee, which has put in many hours coming up with an updated investment policy, organizing funds and looking into our long-term future. Their work is ongoing but will be presented at our Congregation brunch on April 8. This will be an opportunity to weigh in on our future.

During the time when Rabbi Vinikoor has been on her much deserved family leave, several of our members stepped up to lead services. Thank you to Robert Gersh, Rachel Connelly and Maurie Libner who are always ready and willing to volunteer and take care of things at Beth Israel. They always do a wonderful job.

Looking ahead, lots of things are happening this spring (assuming it arrives sometime). Rabbi Vinikoor will be returning in early March for our Purim Megillah reading and carnival. The Maine Jewish Film Festival kicks off in Brunswick at the Eveningstar on March 10 and 11 with three wonderful films. We will be holding our Community Passover Seder on March 31. In April, save the dates for two special programs that are still being finalized. Wednesday, April 11 is Yom ha-Sho'ah, Holocaust Remembrance Day. A service and a special speaker will be coming. Thursday, April 19 is Yom ha-Azma'ut or Israel Independence Day. The State of Israel is 70 years old this year. We have something special lined up.

I am inspired by the energy and enthusiasm at Beth Israel and I am hopeful for the future of our little congregation, which is growing every month...amazing. Come to everything, or maybe just one thing, but come.

“May love and harmony, peace and friendship abide among us, now and evermore.”

Social Action Committee
by Joanne Rosenthal

Discussions are underway to reactivate the (somewhat dormant) social action committee at Beth Israel. Informed with information from the URJ Biennial and the Religious Action Center of the Reform movement, there are wonderful examples of programs that could be implemented to fit our small congregation and serve the community. As a Brit Olam Congregation, we have pledged to act in solidarity with vulnerable communities and to "...seek the world we want, not the world as it is."

We will move forward "fostering a culture of sacred and civil dialogue in our congregation where all opinions are heard" and welcome participation at all levels.

For more information, please contact Joanne Rosenthal.

Mid Coast Hunger Prevention Project Food Pantry

by Jill Standish

Beth Israel members have been volunteering at Mid Coast Hunger Prevention Program for over ten years. I am looking for someone to take my place as the Beth Israel volunteer coordinator for the group that brings food from Hannaford's on Sunday morning to the food pantry. I have been involved in this coordinating job since the beginning.

It's really not a lot of work to be the coordinator, but every so often my help is needed. I would guess that it's about two hours a month. It involves asking people to sign up, checking to be sure someone will cover Sunday, and sometimes asking again if there is no one scheduled. If new people volunteer, I take them to show them the ropes and coordinate with the person at Mid Coast.

The Mid Coast Hunger Prevention Project food pantry has a new volunteer coordinator on their end and is very helpful.

Please email me if you have any questions or concerns. The volunteer coordinator is really a worthwhile position.

Sunshine Committee

We have had a busy time with welcome packages going out to our new families and individuals who are new members of the Synagogue. In addition home made meals were delivered through the Meal Train to the families with new babies, Rabbi Vinikoor and Alyssa Finn with baby girl Shira Dorit, and Katherine and Rachel Bouttenot with baby girl Sylvie Rose. In addition, we have sent out the birthday and anniversary greeting cards and welcomed members and visitors to the Congregation. New volunteers are welcome and appreciated!

Maine Jewish Film Festival Comes to Brunswick

by Marilyn Weinberg

Saturday, March 10

Sunday, March 11

Eveningstar Cinema, Brunswick

With the support of members of our congregation, Beth Israel is a proud sponsor of the Maine Jewish Film Festival <<http://mjff.org>> again this year. There will be three films shown during the weekend of March 10 and 11 at the Eveningstar Cinema in Brunswick. I am listing the links for details for each film.

Tickets can be purchased directly from Eveningstar Cinema at <http://eveningstarcinema.com>. Spread the word and bring your friends.

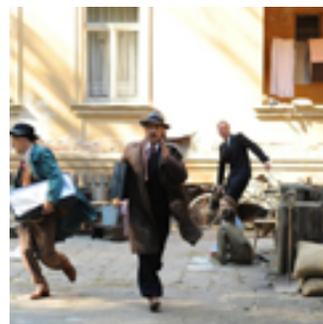

SATURDAY, March 10

11:00 a.m.

Bye Bye Germany

This dark comedy focuses on David Berman and his friends, all Holocaust survivors, who have only one goal: to get to money and go to America as soon as possible. Clever, resourceful, and shady, they are succeeding in their goal when the past comes back to haunt them.

<http://mjff.org/film/bye-bye-germany/>

SUNDAY, March 11

11:00 a.m.

Fire Birds

A veteran cast of Israeli stage and screen stars who deliver captivating, bravura performances in this noir detective story that has many surprises.

<http://mjff.org/film/fire-birds/>

SUNDAY, March 11

4:00 p.m.

Bombshell

Known for her matchless beauty and electric screen persona, Hedy Lamarr also possessed an exceptional mind. Rare recordings, interviews, and excerpts from Lamarr's own diary expose how this Jewish refugee and secret genius with a scandalous past never received the respect she deserved. Narrated by Susan Sarandon, voiced by Diane Kruger.

News from the Hebrew School

It has been my pleasure to lead the Hebrew School for the past two months while Rabbi Vinikoor has been on leave. I have felt so much positive energy from our students and their supportive parents. The children arrive hungry and excited and ready to learn after a busy day at school. I am so impressed with all of them.

Grades 3–6 students begin each Hebrew School session with a prayer service and they chant and sing with lots of enthusiasm. Our younger group has been joining them for the first few songs and doing a great job. They then break up onto two groups, studying both Hebrew language and Jewish customs, holidays and mitzvot. They are now preparing to lead a Friday night Shabbat service on March 23 and hope you can join them to see how far they have progressed.

All of our students love singing and our grades K–2 students had the opportunity in January to do some extra singing with Shira Gersh who was home on break from Brandeis. They loved her ukulele. Thank you Shira. Students have warmly welcomed Hannah Pucker, a Bowdoin student, who has been a great addition to our school. She has been working with our young ones on some of the Shabbat prayers and customs. Meanwhile, Susan Horowitz has kept them focused on holidays and customs with great Jewish stories and crafts.

All of our students spent time learning about our environmental holiday, Tu B'Shevat, and all the things they could do to help "repair the world." They heard stories and learned a number of songs connected with the holiday, which they sang with enthusiasm at the Tu B'Shevat Seder attended by parents and siblings. They planted seeds that we hope will grow a little before Passover and baked some "seven species muffins" that we enjoyed at the Seder.

We look forward to Rabbi Vinikoor returning to us in early March.

Beth Israel New Arrivals

by Camille Kauffunger

Each winter we look forward to February and Tu B'Shevat, the Birthday of the Trees, as the holiday stirs our anticipation of spring and reminds us of the miracles of nature. This January, however, we were given an early opportunity to celebrate new life as we welcomed the arrival of two babies to our Beth Israel community.

Rabbi Lisa Vinikoor and Alyssa Finn delivered their baby girl on Sunday, January 7, at Mid Coast Hospital and introduced us to her eight days later at her naming ceremony. Here, their daughter's name was shared for the first time, Shira Dorit, named after her grandmother, Sheila Vinikoor, who passed away on the same date two years earlier. With song, blessings, great love and ritual, Shira Dorit was given "tribe and history, roots and purpose, baggage and wings" as she was welcomed into the Jewish community by a full synagogue of relatives, members and friends. As one email to Beth Israel expressed following the service, "The baby naming ceremony was so beautiful and there wasn't a dry eye in the synagogue!"

Just two days after the arrival of Shira Dorit, new members Rachel and Katherine Bouttenot gave birth to little Sylvie Rose on Tuesday, January 9, at their home in Bath. Our community has enjoyed getting to know Rachel and Katherine during Shabbat Onegs and holiday celebrations and now looks forward to meeting (and holding) baby Sylvie. Sylvie and her parents traveled Canton Ohio for her naming ceremony. Sylvie Rose Bouttenot was named for her great-great-grandmother Sylvia and her grandmother Roslyn. She also got to meet her great-grandmother Marjorie during her visit.

Thank you to all the Beth Israel members and friends that organized so quickly to cook for the new parents and deliver meals in winter weather. They are grateful for your kindness and warm nourishing meals as they hibernate, hope for sleep and adjust to the role of mama and ema.

The arrivals of Shira Dorit and Sylvie Rose are extra precious for Beth Israel Congregation, as they serve as a sign that our community is blossoming with new energy and life. We are growing! A blessing for us all.
