

A Multi-Faith Gathering of Hope Before the Election
Monday, November 2 at 7:00 PM
See "UPDATE" Below for Video Access Information

In this video, Rabbi Saks joins with faith leaders from across the State of Maine in pledging to protect and preserve democracy by voting; to ensure that our neighbors can exercise their right to vote; to refuse to accept election results until all votes are counted; to uphold the principle of the peaceful transfer of power after a free, fair, and respected election; and to support or join those who engage in non-violent direct action in the event of any unjust usurpation of state authority that undermines the democratic process.

You can sign the pledge as well, using faith language or secular text at www.defendingdemocracyfaithfully.com.

Then, please join Rabbi Saks and leaders of Southern Maine's faith communities on the eve of the election to share prayers and messages of hope and peace. Together, we will rise above the partisanship and join our voices in solidarity at this key turning point for our nation.
