

*"You cannot dismantle what you cannot see.
You cannot challenge what you do not understand."* – Layla F. Saad

Mondays, November 16, November 23, November 30, and December 7 at 6:30 PM.

Please join us for a weekly discussion group of Me and White Supremacy: Combat Racism, Change the World, and Become a Good Ancestor, by Layla F. Saad. Saad takes readers through a step-by-step process of exploring white supremacy and how it has affected each one of us. She states, "White supremacy is a system you have been born into. Whether or not you have known it, it is a system that has granted you unearned privileges, protection, and power." She gives us tools for going deep into understanding of our own racism. She helps us find ways to become better allies to Black, Indigenous, and People of Color, and to find pathways to Tikkun Olam.

We will meet weekly for four weeks, preparing each week by reading identified chapters and writing personal responses to the journaling questions posed in the book. During our meetings, we will have a chance to discuss the questions, the process, and the issues that arise. At the end of the four weeks, we will decide if the group wishes to continue to meet and, if so, in what format.

Meetings will be Mondays, November 16, November 23, November 30, and December 7 at 6:30 PM on Zoom. Please register below so that we can send you the link! You can purchase the book here or here or here. (If you use Amazon, be sure to choose Bet Ha'am's Smile account.)

Register HERE

Coordinators/facilitators: Congregants Mary Lou Michael and Faith Moritz. If you have any questions, please feel free to email Faith Moritz.

Try email marketing for free today!