

Menorah Lighting with Rabbi Saks

We are excited to share that this year, Rabbi Saks will be gathering with small groups from our congregation throughout the Chanukah holiday for menorah lighting. Sign up below (choose just one night, please) to join one of these gatherings to light candles, sing songs, and play dreidel with each other and with Rabbi Saks. We will send you the Zoom link closer to the date.

We will also hold our annual Light Up the Night Family Chanukah Shabbat service, on Friday, December 11 at 6:00 PM. In the past, this service included over 100 folks from the Bet Ha'am community, gathered to celebrate Chanukah and welcome Shabbat, lighting dozens of chanukiot (Chanukah menorahs) in our sanctuary garden windows. We'll still be holding the service--albeit differently and on Zoom. We will share details soon.

You can get ready for menorah lighting with Rabbi Saks and for Light Up the Night with holiday items from our gift shop.

- Chanukah candles: $2 or $8
- Chanukiyot (Menorahs): Traditional or electric starting at $10
- Gelt: No nuts/pareve, $1.05 per bag
- Assorted dreidels and holiday cards
