Message from the Rabbi

Dear Friends,

Eighty years ago this week, on the 28th of Sivan 1941, the Rebbe and Rebbetzin arrived in the United States following their harrowing escape from Nazi Europe.

Soon after their arrival, the Rebbe was appointed by his father-in-law, the Previous Rebbe, to oversee the growth and rebuilding of the Chabad movement, in his capacity as chairman of the three central Chabad-Lubavitch organizations. In 1950 he assumed the leadership of Chabad upon the passing of the Previous Rebbe.

The coming Sunday, June 13th, we will mark the Rebbes passing, on the 3rd of Tammuz, 1994. As the Rebbe taught us following his predecessors passing, the life of a righteous persona tzaddikis always more spiritual than physical. The Rebbe continues to lead us through his teachings and guidance, to this very day.

Among the Rebbes many directives was that every Jewish person should learn a daily portion of Maimonides Mishneh Torah, either three chapters a day on an annual cycle, or one chapter a day on a tri-annual cycle. This year we conclude the 40th cycle of the 3-chapters-a-day order on the day of the Rebbes yahrtzeit, the 3rd of Tammuz.

This offers a great opportunity for all of us to commit ourselves to this daily study program which covers every single aspect of Torah, and to also unite with Jews around the world who are doing the same.

Shabbat shalom.

Parshah in a Nutshell

Parshat Korach

Korach incites a mutiny challenging Moses leadership and the granting of the kehunah (priesthood) to Aaron. He is accompanied by Moses inveterate foes, Dathan and Abiram. Joining them are 250 distinguished members of the community, who offer the sacrosanct ketoret (incense) to prove their worthiness for the priesthood. The earth opens up and swallows the mutineers, and a fire consumes the ketoret-offerers.

A subsequent plague is stopped by Aarons offering of ketoret. Aarons staff miraculously blossoms and brings forth almonds, to prove that his designation as high priest is divinely ordained.

Gd commands that a terumah (uplifting) from each crop of grain, wine and oil, as well as all firstborn sheep and cattle, and other specified gifts, be given to the kohanim (priests).
