

MAINE JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

HAPPY
THANKSGIVING
From MJFF!

IN SEARCH OF ISRAELI CUISINE NOVEMBER 5 AT THE JCA OF SOUTHERN MAINE

A sold out crowd at the new JCA building on Congress Street in Portland enjoyed the film, In Search of Israeli Cuisine followed by a food tasting prepared by Portland chefs Daniel Heinrich and Haggai Bernstein. Thanks to Phyllis Graber Jensen for photos.

Thank you to our JCA partners and everyone who attended our event In Search of Israeli Cuisine. It is clear from the pictures shown above that everyone enjoyed the film, food, and company. We also thank all of you who responded to the post-event survey. Your input will help us create more excellent programs in the future.

One good meal deserves another, so on behalf of everyone at the Maine Jewish Film Festival, our best wishes for a very Happy Thanksgiving.

Of course, Thanksgiving is about more than just good food and family gatherings - it is also about giving thanks for the good things in your life.

Here at MJFF we are so grateful for the support we receive from our friends throughout our community - it is this support that allows to look forward to our 21st Festival this coming March. We hope you will consider adding a tax deductible contribution to MJFF in your year end giving this year.

Enjoy the holiday and stay tuned for information on the 2018 Festival!

Barbara Weiss
