

MAINE JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

How to nosh your way around Montreal (and learn a little history too)

Dear Friends,

We are delighted by the enthusiastic reaction to the first Maine Yiddish Culture Festival! There are so many events to look forward to, but if you enjoy film, food and funny tour guides, you must see Chewdaism, A Jewish Tour of Montreal on Sunday, November 2 at 4:00 PM at the JCA.

The comedic duo "YidLife Crisis" takes a funny and enlightening historical and cultural tour of Jewish metro-Montreal centered around its legendary foods. Jamie Elman and Eli Batalion gorge themselves in choice Jewish eateries as they highlight their native city's Jewish story in insightful, witty conversations with historians, restaurant owners and other lanzman.

And because we know you'll feel famished at the end of the film, we've put together a reception catered by Rose Foods and Tin Pie Bakery.

We are also looking forward to Portland Dance Month and delighted to be a part of this celebration of dance in Portland. On November 14, MJFF presents Mr. Gaga, a documentary about choreographer Ohad Naharin, at the JCA. (see details below). So if you missed this extraordinary film at the 2018 Festival or want to see it again don't miss this opportunity to

Mr. Gaga tells the story of Ohad Naharin, the renowned choreographer and artistic director of the Batsheva Dance Company - a genius who redefined the language of modern dance. A visual delight, Mr. Gaga is a spirited and insightful introduction to a man of creative integrity and extraordinary vision. "The dancing alone is worth the price of admission." Indiewire
