

We're so excited the 2021 Virtual MJFF starts today, Saturday, November 6 with a selection of 17 great films and programs. If you've already bought tickets, get ready to watch some great films, all films available throughout the entire Festival. If you haven't bought tickets yet, there is still time -- tickets will be available throughout the Festival (Nov 6-14) and can be reserved here.

Find extra information on our films, programs and organization in our 2021 Virtual Program Book. We hope you'll take a look at this excellent Festival resource.

TIPS FOR WATCHING VIRTUAL FILMS:

To access the film you purchased you will need to access your account. You can do this easily:

1. Log in with the email you used to purchase tickets and go to My Tickets in the upper right corner to click on the film. Or log in through your original email confirmation.
2. Go to the film and click on watch now – all films are available to start watching from Nov 6 through the 14th. Once you actually start watching you have 3 days to complete watching.
3. To watch a live stream discussion, go to the film with the live stream and click enter live stream on the right sidebar.
4. If you are going to watch on a TV APP be sure to unlock the film first on your device.
