The 90-minute webinar centers on two speakers:

Bat-Ami Zucker, brings extensive scholarly research to her presentation about Frances Perkins' courageous—and yet little known— advocacy role for permitting entry to the U.S. of Jewish immigrants escaping the Holocaust in Europe. Bat-Ami Zucker is a Senior Lecturer Emerita at Bar-Ilan University in Israel. Her books include United States Aid to Israel and its Reflection in the New York Times and the Washington Post 1948-1973 (published in 1991) and In Search of Refuge: Jews and United States Consuls in Nazi Germany (1933-1941) (published in 2000).

Manli Ho, an investigative journalist, has spent 15 years researching and documenting the actions of her father, Dr. Feng Shan Ho, one of the first foreign diplomats to save Jews from the Holocaust in Nazi-occupied Europe.

Following the speakers' pre-recorded remarks, The moderator, Judith Goldstein, Executive Director of Humanity in Action, will lead a live session which will include speakers responding to questions from the audience.
