Human Spirit In Stone

Antoinette Prien Schultze

Join us for Tea in the Garden

Sunday, August 20, 2017, 2pm-4pm

"The exhibition of my sculptures in the Museum garden is calming, and peaceful, much like the garden itself, creating a serene sanctuary for contemplation. The carved granite stones offer strength and solidarity, connecting one to the earth." A. Schultze

Schultze has been carving since 1969. Her sculptures have evolved from realistic to abstraction, with her philosophical focus and medium of expression remaining constant. In 2006 she was able to build a large studio behind her home. It is here that she strives to create forms that are visually beautiful and comfortable in the landscape, exhibiting strength along with the frailty that she sees in existence. Schultze uses the natural and eternal presentation that stone
