Time of Transition at the Maine Jewish Museum

The Maine Jewish Museum Board of Directors has decided to focus more intently on completion of our building renovations over the next year. We plan to add larger and handicap accessible bathrooms, new office space, and we will finish city-mandated infrastructure issues that will enable full automatic usage of our new elevator.

Our dedicated and capable Board of Directors, guided by the availability of sustainable resources, will maintain all of the Museum's efforts to develop programs, exhibits and an endowment. We feel that in order to accomplish this in a financially prudent and efficient way, it is not in the best interest of the museum to have a full-time Executive Director at this time.

Given that, our Executive Director, Ani Helmick, will be leaving her position at the end of January. We thank her for all she has accomplished in guiding our growth, development and stature in the community. She has been an effective leader and resource and a tireless advocate for our mission. We wish her the best in her future endeavors.

Please be on the lookout for news about our future programs and exhibits and thank you for your continued interest and support of our efforts.

Jody Sataloff, President of the Board, and the Maine Jewish Museum Board of Directors

The mission of the Maine Jewish Museum is to honor the contributions and diversity of Maine's Jewish immigrants in the context of the American experience. Through exhibits and programming, the Museum seeks to build bridges of appreciation and understanding with people of all backgrounds.

Join us in celebrating Jewish ART, HISTORY and CULTURE in Maine.
