Israel Independence Day Picnic!

Saturday, April 17, 12 noon

Celebrate Israel's Independence Day (Yom Ha'atzma'ut) with a picnic at Merryspring Nature Center in Camden. Bring your own picnic lunch and a picnic blanket, and we will have Israeli treats to share. Masks are required. If it's raining, the picnic will be cancelled. Check the synagogue voicemail by 9 a.m. on Saturday if you're not sure.

Tzedek Series: Disability Inclusion and Justice

with Rabbi Lauren Tuchman

Sunday, April 18, 6:30 p.m.

We welcome Rabbi Lauren Tuchman to bring together our disability inclusion learning with our Jewish values and traditions. Throughout the Talmud there are multiple stories in which people who were marginalized by their society are agents of their own experience. We will examine a few of these stories, including one about a student with learning disabilities and another about a blind rabbi who advocates for equitable inclusion. Our goal in learning these texts is to examine ourselves and our own lives. Which values might we carry forward? What do these texts teach us about the value of personal agency and choice? Please join us for this unique opportunity for study and discussion.

Ordained by The Jewish Theological Seminary in 2018, Rabbi Lauren Tuchman was named to the Jewish Weeks 36 under 36 for her innovative leadership concerning inclusion of Jews with disabilities in all aspects of Jewish life. Listen to her 2017 ELI Talk by clicking here: We All Were At Sinai: The Transformative Power of Inclusive Torah. We hope to see you on Sunday as we close out this chapter in our Tzedek series.
