

Please join us this tonight, August 18 at 7 p.m. as Rabbi Jonathan Panitz leads us at Shabbat worship. Rabbi Panitz is the last in a series of guest Rabbis we have engaged to give us tastes of various 'flavors' of Judaism.

Rabbi Panitz holds a Masters Degree in Bio Ethics and is currently working as Hospice Chaplain for Gilchrist Hospice, Baltimore, Maryland.

He will speak about the Doctrine of Double Effect and lead a discussion on the ethics of decision making. Our decisions result in intended - and unintended - consequences, in ethics generally, in hospice situations, and in Judaism in particular. We make decisions for those we love usually with the very best intentions. Often the results leave us feeling regret.

Services will be followed by a dessert oneg.

Don't miss our event this Wednesday, August 23, 5:30 p.m. at the Strand Theatre in Rockland! Our speaker, Donald S. Burris an international lawyer and a senior partner at Burris, Schoenberg & Walden was not only the other lawyer working side-by-side with Randy Schoenberg to have Maria Altmann's historic rights recognized in the Altmann case, but has been the senior partner in the firm working with other looted art cases. He will speak about the case and his other fascinating experiences in connection with his ongoing efforts to repatriate artworks, businesses and real estate stolen by the Nazis.

This brief lecture will be followed by a screening of Stealing Klimt, a documentary film about the true story of the Woman in Gold, running time 86 minutes. Burris will take questions following the film.

Cost: $20; $15 Farnsworth members, Adas Yeshurun Synagogue members, and Strand members

Tickets may be purchased online through the Farnsworth Museum <http://www.farnsworthmuseum.org/event/returning-nazi-appropriated-art-to-its-rightful-owner/>

ALSO: Please send in your listings for the Eternal Light Booklet. Deadline is August 25. Contact the office if you have any questions.

Shabbat Shalom
