

Come in from the cold Friday, December 21 for a solstice evening of Shabbat music, homemade challah and soup, zemirot (Shabbat songs), and delicious desserts. Please join us for this last Shabbat service of 2018! Bring a potluck dessert to share, and bring your family and friends.

Cantor Dan Leeman of Bath, Maine, will lead us in a Kabbalat Shabbat service beginning at 5:30 p.m. Following this brief traditional service, we'll gather round the table for a nourishing community Shabbat meal. After dinner, Cantor Leeman will teach us a few traditional zemirot, the soulful table songs that enhance Shabbat evening and bring joy and music to the Shabbat gathering.

For more on Shabbat zemirot, and to hear a few of the more popular ones, check out this link:

We hope to see you Friday for good food, good friends, and soulful melody!
