Learners Minyan February 22, 10:00 a.m., in the sanctuary

Join Rabbi Solochek for our Learners Minyan. Each month we will explore a different section of the Shabbat morning service. There will be time for questions and conversations about the meaning of the prayers, how they resonate with or feel challenging to us. We will also learn some melodies and the choreography of the service. Each session will include the Shema, some time for personal reflection/prayer, and a brief Torah teaching.

Open to everyone! This month we will be focusing on the Torah service, receiving an aliyah, and Torah/haftarah readings.

A light lunch will follow.

Family Program

Join us on February 16 at 9:00 a.m. as our series of family programming, geared towards children (0-6 years old), continues. We will continue learning together with songs, stories and games.

You are welcome to join in the fun, even if you did not attend previous sessions.

Weekday Minyan

Monday, February 24, 8:00 a.m.

Join us for a weekday morning service. Rabbi Solocek will lead and offer guidance throughout the service. Followed by coffee and schmoozing.

Weather or Not?

It is another Maine winter. As a rule, we are pretty tough, and don't let much stop us. But sometimes the weather is just too bad to risk driving in.

Please call the office if you are in doubt if a service, class, or event will be held. We will update our outgoing message if anything is canceled.

As always, even if the synagogue is open, please use your best judgement about whether to travel or not. Road conditions will vary depending on where you are coming from.
