

Rabbi Rachel Isaacs will lead Shabbat services tonight at 7 p.m. Please come and bring a dessert to share for the potluck oneg.

Shabbat services on Saturday begin at 10 a.m. and will be followed by a luncheon courtesy of Suzan and David Theriault. Please join us.

Over the course of Shabbat, Rabbi Isaacs will talk about the Center for Small Town Jewish Life, which she directs at Colby College. She will also lead a discussion and study session on the role of non-Jewish members in the synagogue community, and she'll be available to talk about the Conservative movement and Conservative practice.

All in all, it's going to be a great Shabbat weekend with lots of opportunities for learning, praying, schmoozing, and enjoying good food and conversation. We hope to see you!

Reminder: Rabbi Isaacs recently delivered the benediction at the White House Chanukah Party. Check it out here, and come hear about it in person.

Shabbat Shalom!
