

Adas Yeshuron Synagogue

This Week's Programs

It's a quiet week in the midst of an event-filled time. We hope these long days are filled with the sweetness of summer for you and your loved ones. A reminder that spaces are available to lend a hand by setting up/cleaning up Shabbat kiddush, sponsoring a Friday or Saturday kiddush or lunch, or serving as a greeter.

Funtensive Jewish Summer Program for Kids!

July 19-23 at Beth El, Augusta

Join Mel Weiss, director of Summer Program at the Center for Small Town Jewish Life, and Rabbi Erica Asch for a week of Jewish and Hebrew-themed games, learning, art, songs, and more in person at Temple Beth El in Augusta! We will be strictly adhering to national, state, and Colby College Covid guidelines, and will be meeting outside only, requiring masks, and maintaining safe distance. Come for one day, two days, or the whole week. Just $5/day! A program of the Center for Small Town Jewish Life.

Understanding the Israeli Elections

This program, originally scheduled for Sunday, July 25 w/ Rabbi Rachel Isaacs, has been postponed. Stay tuned for details about a new date.

Adas Yeshurun Covid-19 Practices

We return to the synagogue this summer for hybrid (in person and Zoom) services and programs. Masks are required indoors. The Covid Response Team will continue to monitor the situation, and update any safety procedures as needed. If you have questions, please contact Nancy Scovern, nscovern@gwi.net, or any board member.

A Note About Zoom

As we return to in-person programs and services, we will continue to offer the option to join our events on Zoom. The Zoom links which remain the same week to week will be provided in the weekly email. All you need to do is click on the JOIN ON ZOOM box below the event listing.

For those who have requested it, here is the Zoom link in its full format. This is the Zoom link for Shabbat services and Adult Ed programs.
