This Week's Programs: Back to Shul!

Exploring Jewish Texts: Kabbalah

Thursday, June 10, 7 p.m.

Join Rabbi Solochek to explore the Tomer Devorah, a text that combines Kabbalah and personal ethics, and consider how our understanding (or questions!) about God can inform our personal choices. Texts will be provided in English and Hebrew.

All are welcome!

Shabbat Services and Potluck Dinner

Friday, June 11, 6 p.m.

Join the Adas Yoshuron community for our first Shabbat back in the synagogue! We will welcome Shabbat with song and prayer in the sanctuary, and then enjoy a delicious dairy potluck together outside. For accessibility, services will also be broadcast on Zoom. Please note masks are required inside the synagogue building.

Potluck Details and Sign-Up

At 7 p.m., after we gather in prayer and celebration, we invite everyone to join us for a festive community dinner. The meal will take place outdoors in the upper parking lot adjacent to the synagogue, magically transformed for the evening into the Piazza della Yoshuron. This will be a guided dairy potluck, and we are hoping many of you will bring a dish to share. Your dish can be hot or warm, since we will have the oven turned on in the kitchen.

Please enter the synagogue through the main entrance and bring all contributions to the downstairs kitchen; ushers will be on hand to guide you.

Meal coordinator Richard Aroneau is asking that you contribute one of the following:

- Main Dishkugel or another baked casserole, kosher fish (hot or cold)
- Salad
- Side Dishgrain or vegetable
- Challah
- Dessert (fresh fruit, cake, cookies, pie)

Please: no meat, no shellfish. If you have any questions, contact us!

Let us know what you are bringing and if you can help with set-up or clean-up before or after dinner. And if contributing food does not work for you this time, just come! We look forward to a wonderful evening of prayer, gratitude and reconnection!

RSVP to info@adasyoshuron.org.
