This Week's Programs

A Note about Shabbat Services

We hope to see you on Shabbat this weekend!
A reminder to wear a mask if you're attending in person.
Everyone is welcome at all services!

As a community with a variety of backgrounds and spiritual practices, we are trying something new on Shabbat for the next six months to help meet everyone's Judaic religious needs.

Once a month we will hold a "traditional" Friday-night and Saturday-morning service, mostly in Hebrew. Once a month we will hold a "contemporary" Friday-night and Saturday-morning service, featuring more English, poetry, and free-form Shabbat worship. Everyone is welcome to every service and we hope you will join us to try something new!

Please check to see which services are happening when:
