This Week's Programs

A Note About This Week's Events

We have so much to tell you about!

As you read through the events and update your calendar, please take care to consider the unique details for each event listed.

We have services, classes, conversations and celebrations on offer, each with their own instructions on how to join.

Thanks for your careful consideration and have an excellent week!

The last evening service for October

Shabbat Services

Friday, October 15, 6 p.m.

Contemporary Shabbat services, in the sanctuary and on Zoom.

This contemporary service features more English, poetry, and free-form Shabbat worship. Everyone is welcome to every service and we hope you will join us to try something new!

Looking Ahead to Next Week:

Roots of Compassion:
A Presentation by Jon Kolkin

Tuesday, October 19, 7 p.m.

In-person at the First Congregational Church in Camden and on Zoom

Dr. Jon Kolkin will give a talk on "The Role of Compassion in Living a Less Stressful, More Balanced Life," followed by a signing reception for his new book, Inner Harmony: Living in Balance, which includes forewords by the Dalai Lama and Queen Mother of Bhutan.

Co-sponsored by Adas Yoshuron, this program honors the memory of Jon's parents, the late Caryl and Marvin Kolkin, longtime members of Adas Yoshuron.
