This Week's Programs

A Note about Shabbat Services

We hope to see you on Shabbat this weekend! As a community with a variety of Jewish backgrounds and spiritual practices, we are trying something new on Shabbat for the next six months to help meet everyone's religious needs. Once a month we will hold a "traditional" Friday-night and Saturday-morning service, mostly in Hebrew. Once a month we will hold a "contemporary" Friday-night and Saturday-morning service, featuring more English, poetry, and free-form Shabbat worship. Everyone is welcome to every service and we hope you will join us to try something new! Please check the weekly email to see which services are happening each week.

Shabbat Services

Friday, October 8, 6 p.m.

Traditional Shabbat services, mostly in Hebrew and with more of the liturgy, in the sanctuary and on Zoom.

Shabbat Services and Bar Mitzvah

Saturday, October 9, 10 a.m.

Contemporary Shabbat services as Calder Meil is called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah. The service will take place at the Meils' home, and on Zoom. From Kathleen and Ari Meil:

Join us for Calder's backyard bar mitzvah at our home 6 Curtis Ave., Camden.
Dress for the weather and stay for a kiddush lunch after the service.
Parking is on-street; please be considerate of our neighbors.

Anyone who is not vaccinated should wear a mask; we'll have disposable masks available.

Tzedek Series: Indigenous Peoples and Dawnland

Saturday and Monday, October 9 and 11

Please join us throughout the weekend of October 9-11 to commemorate Indigenous Peoples Day.

- Saturday, October 9, 6:30 p.m.: Zoom Havdalah led by Rabbi Solochek. Click here to join.
- Monday, October 11, 6-7:30 p.m.: We will join Wabanaki REACH for a panel discussion on the film Dawnland, a documentary about the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in Maine. This event requires pre-registration. Register here:

Dawnland Film and Discussion - Online October 11, 2021 - Wabanaki REACH

Dawnland is a documentary about the Maine Wabanaki-State Child Welfare Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC). Film makers Adam Mazo and Ben Pender-Cudlip follow the TRC to contemporary Wabanaki communities to witness intimate, sacred moments of truth-telling and healing. www.mainewabanakireach.org
