This Week's Programs

A Time for Everything: Exploring Ecclesiastes

Thursday, September 23, 7 p.m.

The book of Kohelet (Ecclesiastes) has inspired everything from theology to art, from philosophy to Pete Seegers Turn! Turn! Turn! Come explore the philosophical wanderings of Kohelet, traditionally read on Sukkot, and the works it has influenced. Bring your creative side to create your own Kohelet-inspired art as well.

Services and Sukkot Potluck

Friday, September 24, 6 p.m.

Join us for Shabbat services and a Sukkot potluck at the beautifully decorated synagogue sukkah! Bring a vegetarian dish to share. In the event of rain, services will be held in the sanctuary and on Zoom as scheduled, but the potluck will be cancelled.

Shabbat Services

Saturday, September 25, 10 a.m.

Join us for services in person or on Zoom for Sukkot Shabbat, and kiddush in the sukkah.

The sukkah is also available for anyone to visit during this Sukkot week. All are welcome to bring lunch and enjoy a meal in our beautiful sukkah!

Adas Yeshurun Covid-19 Practices

We return to the synagogue for hybrid (in person and Zoom) services and programs.

Masks are required indoors. The Covid Response Team will continue to monitor the situation, and update any safety procedures as needed. If you have questions, please contact Nancy Scovern, nscovern@gwi.net, or any board member.

A Note About Zoom

We continue to offer the option to join our events on Zoom. The Zoom links which remain the same week to week are provided in the weekly email. All you need to do is click on the JOIN ON ZOOM box below the event listing.

For those who have requested it, here is the Zoom link in its full format. This is the Zoom link for services and Adult Ed programs.
