

We hope that your Days of Awe are productive and insightful.

Please join us as we continue our High Holiday programming at Adas Yoshuron Synagogue. Kol Nidre services begin promptly at 6 p.m. this Friday, September 29. Please try to arrive early. We are fortunate to have Dana Goldsmith and the Adas Yoshuron Choir for this inspiring evening.

Yom Kippur morning services begin at 9 a.m. on Saturday, September 30.

We hope you will join us for Break-the-Fast at about 7 p.m. Saturday evening.

Please remember that we are collecting for the local food pantry this week. If you are able to bring anything to drop off on your way in to services, it is appreciated.

Sunday, October 1, we are participating in the Soup Kitchen at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Rockland. The menu is below. Food contributions, donations, and volunteer help are most welcome. This is a great way to put your intentions for the New Year into action right away! Contact Linda Garson-Smith to plug into this.lindagarson.smith@gmail.com

Join us for Sukkah decorating on Thursday, October 5 at 4 p.m., followed by a service at 5 p.m., led by Rav Bryan Mann, our Rabbinic Intern. Bring vegetables, plants, flowers, etc. to help make our Sukkah beautiful.

More information about Farm to Table Sukkot celebration and Simchat Torah observances will be available soon.

May you be sealed for a good year!
