Interfaith Service for Healing and Hope

Thursday, Dec. 31, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

The Midcoast Interfaith Alliance invites you to gather in community to mourn the enormous losses we have experienced in the past year, and to share a message of hope and light for 2021. Rabbi Solochek will join midcoast clergy of different faith traditions in this service to comfort us for the year that has passed and build resilience and strength for the new year. The service will include a 2020 version of the Mourners Kaddish, prayer, poetry, music, and a brief lovingkindness meditation. All are welcome.

Winter Funtensive for Kids

Daily Dec. 28-31, 9-10 a.m.

The Center for Small Town Jewish Life is offering fun Jewish learning and connection for kids over winter break. Educator Mel Weiss will bring songs, stories, Hebrew games, and crafts to this four-day program, meeting on Zoom from 9-10 a.m each day.

Recommended for kids 4 - 11, but all are welcome!
