

STUDENT ATHLETES HONORED — Pen and pencil desk sets were presented by Cumberland Lodge B'nai B'rith to 11 Greater Portland student athletes for outstanding all-round performance, including scholarship and other extra-curricular activities, at the eighth annual Sports Night dinner at the Holiday Inn. Top, co-chairman and Em-Cee Art Pinansky, second right, Westbrook's ace basketballer Matt Donahue, second left, as others await their turn in the happy scene are, from left, Portland basketball-baseball ace Buddy Adams, Cheverus basketball-baseball standout Marty

Ridge (also salutatorian), stellar South Portland basketball-baseball captain George Beattie and Deering track captain and valedictorian Doug Winger. Lodge president Murray Rosen, left, presents Portland track star Dave Hirshon with his gift. Others honored, Glen Jacobson, Deering footballer; Gary Agger, Portland basketball-baseball star; Andy Branz, Portland swimming cocaptain and salutatorian; Jeff Goodman, Deering footballer and tennis; Ken Krems, handy Deering track sprinter and tennis captain. (By Staff Photographer Merrill)