

MAINE CONFERENCE HELD

(Continued from Page 1)

Maine Conference Held

The first intrastate Conference composed of Sisterhoods in the state of Maine affiliated with the New England Region of WB, met with enthusiastic response. More than 100 women convened in the beautiful new quarters of Congregation Sharey Tphiloth in Portland, Maine. Sisterhoods from Bangor, Bath, Lewiston, Biddeford, Auburn and Portland were represented.

(Continued on Page 3)

The theme "Let There Be Light" encompassed the subjects: "Strangers at the Gate," "Our Youth — Steering or Drifting," and "Sisterhood's Relations to Synagogue." Mrs. Charles Weinstein of Brookline, Mass., past president of the New England Region, was guest speaker. Rabbi Morris Bekritsky of the host congregation, brought greetings to the assembled. Mrs. Samuel Kates and Mrs. Bertram Silverman were Conference Co-Chairmen.

Leaders of Maine Conference, Left to right: Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, Mrs. Bertram H. Silverman, Mrs. Harry Rubinoff, speakers at the Conference: Mrs. Morris Bekritsky and Mrs. Chas. Weinstein.