

DIRECTORS ELECTED

AT JEWISH CENTER

Members of the Jewish Community Center yesterday elected 12 members to the board of directors to serve the next three years. It was announced last night by Morris D. Kronenfeld, Center director.

The newly elected directors will attend their first meeting of the board Thursday night when the complete board will meet to elect officers. The new board members will be installed officially at the May 10 annual dinner meeting.

The new board members are John Abromson, Leroy Baker, Morris Baker, Irving Bell, Leonard Bell, C. Martin Berman, A. L. Cohen, William Cohen, Mrs. Louis Green, Charles Polep, Murray Schultz and Joseph Wilner.

The directors elected and others were nominated by a committee prior to the election. The nomination committee members were Louis Green, William Goldstein, Sam White, Charles Polep and Mrs. Maynard Schwartz.
