

THE MAINE CONFERENCE FOR JEWISH LIFE

A CELEBRATION OF JEWISH LIFE IN MAINE

Dear All,

Spring has finally sprung in Maine, which always turns our minds to thoughts of... serious statewide Jewish learning!

The Maine Conference for Jewish Life is nearly here—and our line-up for beautiful services the night of June 12th, and a day of engaging learning on the 14th, is amazing. There will be gorgeous t'fliot and niggunim. There will be music and film, stories and art, a minyan of rabbis teaching bite-sized texts, and because this is Maine after all, some great ideas for kosher camping. Our full schedule is available on our website.

Registration is free, though your support is always appreciated—but please note: you must register by June 11th to receive your protected login information. Register today! Your registration will allow you to hop in and out of the day's programs, so you can enjoy those parts of the conference that speak to you.

We are looking forward to seeing you at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, June 12th and 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, June 14th.
