good start and the pledges already secured assure the fact that the campaign will be successful.

A banquet was given by the Portland War Relief Committee to open the big drive and to honor Honfl Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, who is summering at Poland Springs. Other special guests of the occasion included Mayor Charles B. Clarke, Judge Joseph E. F. Connolly and Rev. David D. S. Pool of the Jewish Welfare Board. A reception was tendered to the guests prior to the dinner.

New Haven Sisterhood Officers

The members elected to hold office for the ensuing year by the Temple Mishkan Israel Sisterhood, of New Haven, Conn., are: Mrs. William Schoenberger, president; Mrs. Leopold Schoenberger, treasurer; Mrs. Hannah Myers, secretary, and Mrs. Israel Kleiner, corresponding secretary.

Vacationers Contribute to War Relief

The appeals sent out by the Central Relief Committee to the mountain and sea-shore resorts early in the season are bringing a warm response. The poster, depicting a pretty child bare-footed and with arms outstretched, appealing for aid, intensified the agitation among the vacationists. The wording on the poster was "Enjoy your vacation, but remember that we want bread."

At Mt. Clemens, Mich, a special war relief meeting was held which was addressed by Rabbi Harris Masliansky and Mr. Samuel Neveleff of Chicago, at which $800.00 was collected in cash, besides pledges.

Portland, Maine, Successful in War Relief

With prominent speakers present and an attendance of about 250 men and women the drive by the Jewish people of Portland for their allotment of $35,000 in the $15,000,000 war relief campaign has made a
